The Department of Theater at CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor in the area of costume design beginning with the 2011-12 academic year. Responsibilities include teaching costume design and theory, costume crafts and construction, theatrical dye/paint techniques, make-up, and serving as Resident Costume Designer, designing two to three shows annually in the department’s season. Normal teaching load is one and one. Responsibilities also include maintaining costume facilities, equipment, stock, and supervising student staff and costume crews. Continuing excellence in teaching, creative/scholarly activity, and service is expected in order to qualify for reappointment, tenure, and promotion. An MFA in Design is required. To apply, send a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, have three current letters of recommendation sent independently by the authors, and include a representative portfolio (digital images or website acceptable) to Prof. Jerrold Scott, Department of Theater, Case Western Reserve University, 10900 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, OH, 44106-7077; (216) 368-6140, or submit your electronic application to: jerrold.scott@case.edu. An official transcript must be made available upon request. In employment, as in education, Case Western Reserve University is committed to Equal Opportunity and Diversity. Women, veterans, members of underrepresented minority groups, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply. Review of applications begins January 15, 2011.