The Department of Theater at CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor in the area of scenic and lighting design, beginning with the 2011-12 academic year. Responsibilities include teaching courses in scenic design and lighting design, with expertise in teaching computer assisted design, and serving as Resident Scenic Designer, designing two to three shows annually in the department’s season. Normal teaching load is two and one. Responsibilities also include mentoring design and technical students, and working with the Technical Director to supervise and schedule student crews. Continuing excellence in teaching, creative/scholarly activity, and service is expected in order to qualify for reappointment, tenure, and promotion. Depending on the candidate, design opportunities exist with the Cleveland Play House and other local Cleveland theaters. An MFA in Design is required. To apply, send letter of interest, curriculum vitae, have three current letters of recommendation sent independently by the authors, and include a representative portfolio (digital images or website acceptable) to Prof. Ron Wilson, Department of Theater, Case Western Reserve University, 10900 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, OH, 44106-7077; (216) 368-6142, or submit your electronic application to: ron.wilson@case.edu. An official transcript must be made available upon request. In employment, as in education, Case Western Reserve University is committed to Equal Opportunity and Diversity. Women, veterans, members of underrepresented minority groups, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply. Review of applications begins January 15, 2011.
