SUPERVISED STUDY IN ISRAEL!

June 5-29, 2006

RELIGION AND POLITICS IN THE MIDDLE EAST

RLGN 280 (3 credits)

Week 1 - Cleveland
Week 2 - Tel Aviv
Week 3 - Galilee
Week 4 - Jerusalem

Sample itinerary (subject to scheduling adjustment):

In Tel Aviv
- Jaffa Flea Market
- Rabin Memorial, City Hall
- Diaspora Museum, University of Tel Aviv
- Eretz Yisrael Folklore Museum
- Museum of the Bible

In Galilee
- New Testament sites
- Excavation at Bet Shean
- Crusader Castle
- Bahai Temple
- Kabbalistic sites

In Jerusalem
- Old City, Arab Market
- Knesset
- Via Dolorsa
- Church of Holy Sepulcher
- Dome of the Rock
- Western Wall
- Hebrew University
- Mount Scopus
- Mount of Olives

Also
- Kibbutz visit
- Druze village
SUPERVISED STUDY IN ISRAEL!

June 5-29, 2006
Case Western Reserve University

RELIGION AND POLITICS IN THE MIDDLE EAST
RLGN 280 (3 credits)

An interdisciplinary approach to the history, religion, politics and culture of the region.

Students will participate in classroom lectures, field trips and research projects. Knowledge of Hebrew not necessary.

Trip $2832-3263 (depending on enrollment) plus summer tuition $1776
Financial aid is available
Not-for-credit students may forego tuition; contact Prof. Haas

Additional costs:
- Housing in Cleveland June 5-9 on campus optional
- Students must secure their own airfare and airport transportation

- Deposit $400 due March 31
  Deposit returned if course does not fill

For more information:
Dr. Peter Haas, Director, Department of Religion and the Judaic Studies Program in the College of Arts and Sciences at Case Western Reserve University

peter.haas@case.edu
(216) 368-2741
www.case.edu/artsci/rlgn/israeltrip