Honoring Our Donors

“Our faculty, staff and students achieve extraordinary feats in the classroom, laboratory, athletic field and everywhere else on our campus. Those accomplishments help inspire our donors, who in turn provide resources for yet more breakthroughs and discoveries, and for that we are deeply grateful.”

—President Barbara R. Snyder

Case Western Reserve has made every effort to ensure that donors’ names appear in the manner in which they wish to be recognized and that their contributions are accurately represented. If you would like to report an error, please notify the Office of Donor Relations and Events, Case Western Reserve University, 10900 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, Ohio 44106-7034, 216.368.6086, donorrelations@case.edu.
LIFETIME COMMITMENTS

With gratitude, Case Western Reserve University recognizes donors whose philanthropy serves to uphold the traditions of the institution, transform the campus and inspire peers to support the tremendous work of faculty and students. Their extraordinary investment in the university distinguishes them as members of the university’s lifetime recognition society, showcasing support for both current initiatives and discoveries that lie ahead. Names listed in bold are those whose giving throughout fiscal year 2009–10 crossed the threshold for membership in the following categories.

THE PRESIDENT’S CIRCLE recognizes individuals and organizations with cumulative giving of $1 million or more.
