

CWRU's 2012 LGBT CENTER ART COMPETITION

SUBMISSION FORM

Guidelines: Art work should interpret, express, reflect or be related to lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer or allied persons, experiences and/or community. Works of art should resonate with the Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Center's purpose to provide a safe and welcoming space for all LGBT people and their allies. All forms of visual art are encouraged, including photography, painting, sculpture and drawing, or any combination thereof.

Eligibility: The content is open to all enrolled CWRU, CIA and CIM students. Graduate, professional and undergraduate students are welcome to submit pieces of art. All students are encouraged to apply regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity or expression.

Judging: The judging criteria includes relevance to the LGBT Center's purpose as stated above as well as creativity, presentation, and technical ability. The judging committee will be composed of students, faculty, staff and alumni from CWRU, CIA and CIM.

Deadline: All Entries must be dropped off, along with this application, at CWRU's LGBT Center by February 29th, 2012.

Please contact Liz Roccoforte to arrange a time for drop off. All artwork must be dropped off during a pre-arranged time and date. Contact Liz at: liz.roccoforte@case.edu, 216-368-LGBT
