Gerald L. Klerman Award Winners to be Honored at SAB Luncheon

J. Calabrese, MD

K. Manji, MD

D. Pine, MD

The Gerald L. Klerman Award is the highest honor given by DBSA. It recognizes contributions to the understanding the causes, diagnosis, and treatment of depressive and bipolar illnesses.

This year we had an unusually large number of excellent nominations for both the Senior and Young Investigator awards. The decision was very difficult.

The Gerald L. Klerman Senior Investigator Award will be presented to Joseph R. Calabrese, MD and Husseini K. Manji, MD. Dr. Calabrese is Bipolar Disorders Research Chair & Prof. of Psychiatry, Case Western Reserve School of Medicine, University Hospitals Case Medical Center. Dr. Manji is Director of the Mood and Anxiety Disorders Research Program at the National Institute of Mental Health-National Institutes of Health.

The Gerald L. Klerman Young Investigator Award will be presented to Daniel S. Pine, MD, Chief of Developmental Studies, Mood and Anxiety Disorders Program, National Institute of Mental Health Intramural Research Program.
