Type of Incident: Aggravated Robbery

Location of Incident: Adelbert Road Pedestrian Bridge

Date of Incident: Friday, 10/27/2006

Time of Incident: 10 p.m.

Incident Description: At approximately 10 p.m., two Case students were walking north on the Adelbert Road pedestrian bridge when a man ahead of them on the bridge turned around and confronted them. The students reported that the suspect pointed a handgun at them and said, “Give me all you got.” The students did not have anything to give the suspect, so they left the area northbound on the bridge, while the suspect turned southbound. The suspect then confronted two other students who were walking northbound on the bridge. According to the students, the suspect pointed his gun at them and said, “Give me all your money.” The students complied and gave the suspect their money. The suspect then fled the area south on Adelbert Road. The students notified Case Police and University Circle Police, who searched the area but were unable to locate the suspect. None of the students were injured.

Suspect Description: The suspect was described as a black male, age 16 to 23, 5’8” to 5’11”, 150 lbs., medium complexion, thin build, sparse beard and was wearing a black hooded sweatshirt pulled over his head and dark colored baggy jeans. The weapon was described as a chrome colored revolver with a black hammer and handle. Two of the students said the suspect appeared to be high on a controlled substance.
