Case Western Reserve University
Northern Region Collegiate Outdoor Championship
April 16th and 17th
Squire Valleeue Farm, Hunting Valley, Ohio

Tournament Format:

2 One day half FITAs (18 arrows at each distance) will be shot, one each day.

One of these half FITAs (pre-designated before scoring begins) will determine the winners of the individual championships and will be used for the All North team ranking (together with the North Indoor Regionals and the State Indoor Championships. Archers may thus shoot either day for score. The other day may be used for practice or studying.

If there is enough interest a team FITA Olympic Round will be conducted on Sunday after the individual half FITA is completed and will be used to determine the outdoor team championships for men’s and women’s recurve and compound teams.

Directions: Hunting Valley is on the east side of Cleveland, east of I-271. From the 271-Cedar/Brainard exchange, go east on Cedar Road approximately 1.5 miles to SOM Center Road. Turn Right onto SOM and proceed to the next light (Fairmont Blvd.). Turn left and go approximately 0.5 miles to CWRU Squire Valleeue Farm (on left). Follow signs to the Sheep Barn. See map.
