FROM: David P. Stevens, M.D.
Vice Dean

DATE: September 29, 1994

RE: Tokai University

A student exchange program exists between Case Western Reserve School of Medicine and Tokai University School of Medicine located in Isehara, Japan (about 60 miles outside of Tokyo). The exchange agreement with Tokai provides for fourth year medical students to study at Tokai with partial support for the stay provided by the host university. Those interested in the program may contact Vice Dean David P. Stevens, M.D., Dr. Adel Mahmoud, in the Department of Medicine, or Dr. Masamichi Aikawa in the Department of Pathology.
