Purpose
The Provost Scholars will have an opportunity to learn about three major objectives that are related to the juvenile justice system and share their concerns during the seminar. Ms. Gabriella Celeste, the Child Policy Director at the Schubert Center for Child Studies, will be leading this lecture.

Presenter Biography
Gabriella Celeste is the Child Policy Director at the Schubert Center for Child Studies and oversees the Mann Child Policy Externship Program. She is also a professor in the School of Arts and Sciences at Case Western Reserve University, the Co-Director for the Childhood Studies Minor and an instructor in child policy. Her research interests include child policy and juvenile justice. She was also nominated for the Carl F. Wittke Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching in both 2012 and 2014. In an effort to share more of the Schubert Center’s racial justice work, Ms. Celeste has presented at the “Facing Race: A National Conference” in 2014. Words of the Week: Public Policy, What is public policy? Actions taken by government entities to enact laws, make policies or allocate resources. Interest and advocacy groups may mobilize together to change those policies if certain laws prove to adversely affect citizens or a segment of the population.
