Seminar Title: Career and College Pathways Planning

Purpose: This seminar will assist the Provost Scholars in exploring relevant potential academic and career pathways while emphasizing long-term planning in today's job market. Available tools and resources that will expand the Provost Scholars' knowledge of potential career pathways will also be discussed.

Presenter Biography:

Laura Papcum, MA.Ed., is the Assistant Director for Alumni Career Services at Case Western Reserve University (CWRU) and a certified career coach with 15+ years of career advising experience. At the CWRU Career Center, Ms. Papcum assists the University's global alumni population and current students with career counseling and support. She is also an active member of the Career Center's employer engagement team and oversees the Partner's Program, which seeks to engage local and international companies with building their brand on CWRU's campus and advising companies on recruitment strategies to increase their recruitment success. Ms. Papcum received her dual bachelor's degree in English and Psychology from Canisius College (Buffalo, NY), and her master's degree in Education from Baldwin-Wallace College (Strongsville, OH). Lastly, she possesses an Executive Coaching Certificate from the Weatherhead School of Management at CWRU.

Objectives: At the end of the session, the Provost Scholars will be able to:

- (1) Describe characteristics of the changing world of work and current job market trends.
- (2) Identify available resources and tools to help them to enhance their career and college pathways.
