The Communications committee met on 1/13/15 and 2/12/15. We are working on creating a list of guidelines for use of the constituency email list servs. This will allow us to narrow our focus with emails, as the intent for our messages is to be relevant to staff rather than an alternative other methods of communication (e.g. The Daily). We are currently working on the March newsletter which will be ready to be sent out to our constituents the first week of March. Our Committee is pursuing options for transferring our current SAC website onto the new Terminal 4 platform. It is a time intensive project and we are in touch with the T4 work team for personnel help. We are working with the chairs of each SAC committee to develop an annual report of our 2014 successes and future plans for 2015. The Sustainability Alliance will meet every other Thursday during the spring semester. For more information or to become involved in its activities, contact John Ruhl at john.ruhl@case.edu. Respectfully submitted, Kathleen Dowdell

Life/Disability Renewal: The University renewed with Consumer Life for three years.
The next scheduled meeting is March 11, 2015.

C. Faculty Senate Reports.................................................................Barbara Juknialis & Jim Nauer

Barbara Juknialis attended Faculty Senate Meeting on December 17, 2014:

Report on Campus Safety
John Wheeler, Senior Vice President for Administration, reported on campus safety. Dick Jamieson, Vice President for Campus Services, and Art Hardee, CWRU Chief of Police, were present to assist. Over the past three years (2012-2014), the campus has averaged 14 crimes against persons per year. The crimes consisted mostly of unarmed robberies with the exception of the Wade Commons incident last summer. Since that incident, additional security officers have been deployed in five locations around the north residential village from 7pm-3am. A security booth on E. 115th St. has been reinstated and security has been tightened in all north campus buildings.

Work is continuing on components of the security strategic plan, such as a peer assessment of the University’s security, continued upgrading of staff, and additional programs and initiatives. An Executive Director of Public Safety will be hired to oversee security, emergency management and dispatch. John Wheeler and Art Hardee reported that a University community-based training program for all police and security officers will be developed and led by Professor Mark Singer of MSASS. The training will cover effective police interactions with CWRU’s diverse community, the unique role of a campus-based, community police or security officer, and achieving positive encounters and outcomes in difficult situations. Also, four shuttle buses rather than just one are available now for safety rides. More may be needed to accommodate all of the requests.

New Business: Senate Resolution re Staff Grievance Process Professor Bill Merrick presented a Faculty Senate resolution endorsing a recommendation to the President to establish a staff grievance process that is similar to the process for faculty.
The resolution also recommends that an ombudsperson be made available for staff complaints. Several members of the Senate expressed the view that an issue related to staff should not be brought to the Faculty Senate. The issue did not originate with a Senate standing committee or the Executive Committee. Colleen Treml, Deputy General Counsel, said that the Human Resources Office has an established process for staff grievances and that it is described on the HR website. Prof. Merrick noted that the staff grievance process is currently housed exclusively in HR and that there is no peer review panel at the level of the informal or formal grievance process.

The Senate voted not to endorse the recommendation (4 voted for endorsement). A motion was made and seconded to refer the issue to the Executive Committee for further discussion and for information on the current staff grievance process. The motion passed with one opposed.
Jim Nauer attended the Faculty Senate meeting on Feb. 26, 2015:

Provost Baeslack: new Bias Reporting system being launched A brief report of Board of Trustees activity, including:

- "Approval in concept" of a project to connect West Campus to the Main Campus.
- "Approval in concept" allows the project to move to a Design phase, so that a cost estimate can be obtained, and then funding sought. The "Health Education Campus" is also at this stage.
- Projects approved "in concept" must be funded before they can be fully approved and implemented.

The 5-year Academic Calendar (through 2020) was presented for approval by the University Registrar (Amy Hammett). The calendar was approved, but there was substantial discussion (and unanswered questions) regarding the recent snow/cold-day closures, and the potential need to modify the spring semester calendar in the future to accommodate such closures.

Dr. Mobley gave substantially the same presentation regarding the Sustained Dialog / Diversity 360 initiatives as she presented to SAC on Feb. 27.

Peter Poulos spoke about revisions being made to the Sexual Misconduct Policy:

- Revisions are based primarily on compliance with the 2011 "Dear Colleagues" letter, the 2013 SAVE Act, and a 2014 Whitehouse report.
- The new Title IX Coordinator will report to Lou Stark (VP of Student Affairs), but investigations of misconduct for faculty and staff will still be investigated by faculty and/or OIDEO, as appropriate.
- Language was added to the effect that "members of the CWRU Community have the right to be free from domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking". Explicitly required by Dear Colleagues letter. Some are cases still covered by other policies not directly related to sexual misconduct.
- The term "advisor" replaces "support person" in hearings. Explicit language from Dear Colleagues letter.
- Added clarification that an 'advisor' _may_ be an attorney, but their role in the (university) hearing must only be as an "advisor".

D. Inclusion, Diversity and Equal Opportunity ...................................................... .....Sarah Robinson

Sarah Robinson has stepped down from her role as SAC Ad hoc Liaison to the Diversity Leadership Council; we are in need of a volunteer to serve in her place.

The Diversity Leadership Council met on January 13 and February 10, 2015

- Diversity Strategic Action plan is in its final year
  - A team will be formed to develop DSAP impact report
  - A new DSAP is being developed for 2015-2018

DRAFT for review and comment Recommendation to Revise Procedure No. IV-3a as it Relates to the Salary Equity Increase

It is hereby resolved by the Staff Advisory Council of Case Western Reserve University that the Council recommends that HR Procedure IV-3a be revised to permit employees to directly submit, with notice to their supervisor and/or their reporting hierarchy, as appropriate,, a request to the Compensation Office for equity review of their compensation.

Whereas

Case Western Reserve University provides a procedure by which supervisors may request compensation review and equity increase for subordinates; and

There exists at Case Western Reserve University inadvertent but significant inequity in compensation due to changes in the hiring rate for employees performing similar work with similar experience and qualifications; and

Equitable compensation is not determined by a supervisor’s perception of whether or not inequity exists, nor is it dependent on what a given budget can “afford.” Equity, by definition, is “the quality of being fair and impartial.” Consequently, the words “if the departmental salary budget permits” effectively render any salary equity concern to be an issue of budget rather than of fairness, and may precipitate supervisors’ disinclination to pursue compensation equity on their subordinates behalf; and

CWRU’s new Strategic Plan restates the University’s commitments to equity and social justice, and that the University will “create a university-wide culture and infrastructure that inspires trust, and fosters personal and professional development”, and emphasizing opportunity for growth, advancement, and recognition of staff value,

Be it Resolved

That we, the members of the Staff Advisory Council of Case Western Reserve University, hereby recommend the following:

○ That HR Procedure IV-3a as relates salary Equity Increase be revised to empower and permit staff to request on their own behalf, with written notice to their supervisor and/or their reporting hierarchy, as appropriate, a review by the Compensation Office of their compensation; and

○ That the HR Procedure IV-3a be amended to provide for transparency in administrative decision making throughout the review process, including a written determination detailing outcome of and justification for the outcome of the equity review.

Respectfully submitted,
Staff Advisory Council, Case Western Reserve University

Recommendation to Establish an Office of the University Ombudsman for Faculty, Students, and Staff

It is hereby resolved by the Staff Advisory Council of Case Western Reserve University that there be established an Office of the University Ombudsman, created in accordance with the Standards of Practice and Code of Ethics of the International Ombudsman Association (IOA).

Whereas

Case Western Reserve University is committed to establishing and perpetuating an equitable work environment that fosters trust and transparency; and

The systematic establishment of a safe, privileged resource for faculty, students, and staff where they might seek advice in their development of cross-cultural understanding and appreciation of the worth of each individual will promote an institutional culture based on a foundation of ethics and equity; and

The university’s Sexual Misconduct Policy limits employees who may become party to an investigation to advice from a “support person” who must be “a current member of the university community” but is not privileged or confidential support resource; and

Ease-At-Work does not provide service in legal matters related to employment; and CWRU’s new Strategic Plan Think Beyond the Possible states that the University will “create a university-wide culture and infrastructure that inspires trust, and fosters personal and professional development” and will “invest in the professional development … of staff”,

Be it Resolved

That we, the members of the Staff Advisory Council of Case Western Reserve University, hereby recommend the following:

- Establishment of an Office of the University Ombudsman, reporting to the President, and Recommendation to Revise Policy No. IV-7 as it Relates to the Tuition Reimbursement Benefit

It is hereby resolved by the Staff Advisory Council of Case Western Reserve University that the Council recommends that the Tuition Reimbursement benefit detailed in HR Policy IV-7 be revised to increase the annual dollar amount available to eligible faculty and staff in order to encourage and facilitate an increased participation in continuing higher education and professional development and to enable timely completion of employees’ courses of study.

Whereas

Case Western Reserve University offers a Tuition Reimbursement benefit for eligible employees that is currently limited to a maximum $2,500.00 of eligible tuition per fiscal year (adjusted January 2013 and effective July 1, 2014); and

The Tuition Reimbursement and Tuition Waiver benefits are limited to six credit hours per fall and spring semester, three credit hours per summer semester; and

The current Tuition Reimbursement benefit amount is only sufficient to fully cover the allotted number of credit hours for courses at some 2-year institutions which adversely impacts the timely completion of degrees for those employees pursuing Bachelor’s, Master’s or Doctoral degrees at institutions other than CWRU; and

Employees whose educational advancement and progress towards degree completion are limited may also 1) be limited in the scope of their service to the University, 2) be limited in their perceived value to the University as individuals, 3) suffer disparate impact on their ability to advance their career at the University, and 4) suffer disparate impact on their ability to leverage tuition benefits should their position not permit release during work hours for classes at CWRU; and

CWRU’s new Strategic Plan restates the University’s commitment to equity and that the University will “create a university-wide culture and infrastructure that inspires trust, and fosters personal and professional development” and will “invest in the professional development … of staff”, in part, by finding “ways to enhance their influence and development”,

Be it Resolved

That we, the members of the Staff Advisory Council of Case Western Reserve University, hereby recommend the following:

- A revision to HR Policy IV-7 which increases the amount of the available Tuition Reimbursement benefit to up to $3,500.00 per year effective July 1, 2015, for employees pursuing their degree in any degree category (Associate’s, Bachelor’s, Master’s, or Doctoral); and ○ A revision to HR Policy IV-7 which provides an option to increase the available amount of the Tuition Reimbursement benefit to up to $7,500.00 per year effective July 1, 2015, for employees pursuing their first degree in at any level (Associate’s, Bachelor’s, Master’s, or Doctoral), with the additional condition that the individual remain an employee of the University for no less than two (2) years following their application for the increased benefit and degree completion if the employee has elected to request the higher Tuition Reimbursement amount.

○ Should the employee resign from the University within two (2) years of using more than $3,500.00 per year as Tuition Reimbursement benefit, the employee shall reimburse to the University any amount over $3,500.00. Should the employee be released from employment within two (2) years of using more than $3,500.00 per year as Tuition Reimbursement benefit the University shall forgo any reimbursement obligation by the employee.
