A discussion and reading with
Thomas Glave,
author of Among the Blood People

Wednesday, October 30th
4:00-6:00 p.m. in Clark Hall 206

THOMAS GLAVE is an O. Henry award-winning author and was named a Village Voice “Writer on the Verge” in 2000. He is the author of Whose Song? and Other Stories, Words to Our Now: Imagination and Dissent (winner of a Lambda Literary Award), The Torturer’s Wife (finalist for the Dayton Literary Peace Prize), and editor of the anthology Our Caribbean: A Gathering of Lesbian and Gay Writing from the Antilles (winner of a Lambda Literary Award). His most recent work has appeared in the New York Times, the Kenyon Review, and Callaloo. Glave has been the Martin Luther King Jr. Visiting Professor at MIT, and a Visiting Fellow at Clare Hall, University of Cambridge.

Co-sponsored by the Program in Women’s and Gender Studies, the Department of History, the Social Justice Institute, the Department of English, the Program in Ethnic Studies, and the Office of Inclusion, Diversity, and Equal Opportunity.