

Sigma Xi Annual Meeting & Student Research Conference

You are invited to join us at the Hyatt Regency
San Francisco Airport in California
on October 25–28, 2018

THREE REASONS WHY YOU MUST ATTEND!

- 1 Engage with multi-disciplinary attendees who use big data to conduct scientific research.
- 2 Content you can't get anywhere else. Featuring Jeff Dean, head of the Artificial Intelligence Unit at Google and other amazing speakers with tools on how to use big data in research.
- 3 Network with other professionals, students, and distinguished scientists and engineers.

Help promote the meeting by sharing this announcement among faculty, students, and other departments!
