CWRU Pride LGBT Ohio Leadership Award

The purpose of the CWRU Pride LGBT Ohio Leadership Award is to provide recognition and financial assistance to outstanding students working to make an impact in the LGBT community at Case Western Reserve University, in Greater Cleveland, or nationally through scholarship, research, or leadership activities.

Qualifications

Qualified applicants include those who:

1. are enrolled or admitted to Case Western Reserve as an undergraduate or graduate student;
2. are in good academic standing with the university; and
3. propose (or have completed) an activity to advance the LGBT community at CWRU through leadership, experience or research made possible by the award.

Application cover page

Please include your name, address, phone number, email and student status, as well as your major/concentration and any minors.

Personal statement

A personal statement (two pages maximum) is required. The statement should address your interest in and personal commitment to LGBT issues, and describe how the award will allow you to make an impactful change in the LGBT community on campus, in Northeast Ohio or nationally. If applicable, please include a proposed budget for your planned activity or research to ensure completion of any planned activity, experience, or research covered in the statement.

Letter(s) of recommendation

Please submit up to two letters of recommendation in support of this award application. At least one letter is required.
