

DESTINATION WEEKEND

David Shall (CWR) is chief operating officer and general counsel, Tornante Television LLC., a wholly owned subsidiary of The Tornante Company LLC, a privately held investment firm founded in 2005 by Michael D. Eisner, former chair and CEO of The Walt Disney Company.

For the past 15 years, David has been the lead on all legal and business affairs relating to the company, including rights acquisition agreements, linear network/streamer license agreements, co-productions and joint ventures. Tornante Television's programs include the hit Netflix series, BoJack Horseman, plus Undone (Amazon), Tuca & Bertie (Adult Swim), NOS4A2 (AMC Network), Judge Faith (Syndication), Crime Exposé with Nancy O'Dell (Syndication) and Glenn Martin DDS (Nick at Nite).

Prior to joining Tornante Television, David was executive vice president, business operations and general counsel for Fremantle US, and oversaw all business and legal matters relating to Fremantle's domestic programming slate including The Price is Right (CBS), Family Feud (Syndication), America's Got Talent (NBC) and American Idol (Fox). Earlier, David was executive vice president, business and legal affairs and new business development for Twentieth Television, Inc., a division of the former Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation.

David is originally from Cuyahoga Falls Ohio, received his Bachelor of Arts degree and his JD from Case Western Reserve University, and currently resides in Los Angeles, California.