

The Alumni Association of Case Western Reserve University

DESTINATION WEEKEND

Abdul Seidu (GRS, theater) was born in Cleveland and is first-generation Ghanaian-American. He first found his love for acting in seventh grade watching his brother perform in plays. He graduated undergrad summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Studies from Kent State University where he also competed in track and field.

Abdul went on to continue working on his craft earning a Master of Fine Arts in Drama at Case Western Reserve University and Cleveland Play House's graduate acting program. Abdul has filmed several national commercials and his movies can be found on streaming services like Amazon Prime, Hulu and Paramount+ with Showtime.