DESTINATION WEEKEND

Milt Shefter, who will host our Destination Weekend visit to the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences' new Museum, is a renowned preservationist who has worked on media asset protection and preservation projects both nationally and internationally. He is also the co-Author of the Academy's iconic publications The Digital Dilemma - 1 and 2.

He has served on the Academy's Science and Technology Council, General Membership Committee, as chair of the Member-at-Large Executive Group and the Production And Technology Branch, having been a member of the Academy since 1989.

This spring, he will host and narrate an Academy Museum presentation on the history and impact of motion picture laboratories on the audience viewing experience.

He is the husband of Emeritus Case Western Reserve University Alumni Board Member, former President of the LA Alumni Chapter and Dan Clancy Service Award recipient, Joy Shefter.
