

The Alumni Association of Case Western Reserve University

DESTINATION WEEKEND

Thayer Juergens (CWR) is a producer and development executive with a decade of experience in the entertainment industry who has helped package and sell projects to Peacock, Disney+, MGM+, Amazon, and Twentieth Century Television. Before joining A Higher Standard, he served as Director of Development at Maniac Productions where he managed their studio deal with Blumhouse Television.

Prior to Maniac, he worked at Millennium Media where he contributed to such films as

The Protégé, The Hitman's Wife's Bodyguard, Jolt, Till Death and The Outpost. In addition to his executive experience, he recently produced the Patty Jenkin's EP'ed feature film Junkie, which was shot in Atlanta and Los Angeles last year.

His early career was in New York City at NBCUniversal, A&E and HBO where for several years he coordinated marketing campaigns for shows such as Silicon Valley, Westworld and Game of Thrones.

Thayer holds an MFA in Producing from the American Film Institute Conservatory. He earned his bachelor's degree in theater, English and political science at Case Western Reserve University.