

The Alumni Association of Case Western Reserve University

DESTINATION WEEKEND

John J. Grabowski is currently a visiting Associate Professor in History at Case Western Reserve University and the Senior Historian at the Western Reserve Historical Society. He also serves as the editor of the online edition of The Encyclopedia of Cleveland History and The Dictionary of Cleveland Biography. He received his B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees in history from CWRU and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

He held the joint position as the Krieger-Mueller Associate Professor of History at CWRU and Director of Research at the Historical Society from 1998 to 2022. In 1996-1997 and 2004-2005 he served as a senior Fulbright lecturer at Bilkent University in Ankara, Turkey.

His publications include The Encyclopedia of Cleveland History, The Dictionary of Cleveland Biography, and Cleveland: A Tradition of Reform, which he co-edited with the late Dr. David D. Van Tassel. He is the author of Sports in Cleveland: An Illustrated History and Cleveland A to Z: Historical Essentials for Newcomers and Residents in Northeastern Ohio, and co-author of Polish Americans and Their Communities in Cleveland. He and his wife Diane are the authors of Cleveland: A History in Motion, and Cleveland: Then and Now. They, along with Professor David Hammack, are the editors of Identity, Conflict & Cooperation: Central Europeans in Cleveland, 1850-1930. His most recent works include a history of Bilkent University, Cleveland Jews and the Making of a Midwestern Community which he co-edited with Dr. Sean Martin, and Cleveland's Cultural Gardens: A Landscape of Diversity, which he authored in partnership with photographer Lauren Pacini.