CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY
PARENTS LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

Parents Leadership Council

The Parents Leadership Council is comprised of a group of dedicated CWRU parents who seek to move the university forward by enhancing the student experience. Philanthropists at heart, council members give generously to the Parents and Family Fund as well as several other University priorities.

Additional Council Member Opportunities:

- Participate in council meetings
- Personally welcome new parents to CWRU and introduce the Parents Leadership Council
- Serve as ambassadors by fostering relationships with fellow parents to broaden their knowledge of CWRU and encourage their support
- Reach out to professional networks to enhance CWRU by building partnerships with the career lab through internships or jobs for new graduates
- Encourage other parents to join in leadership level giving
- Provide feedback at information gathering sessions during council meetings

Qualifications:

Members are current parents of CWRU students in good standing who make a qualifying gift of $2,500 or more to the Parents and Family Fund or another area on campus they care about.
