BAKER-NORD CENTER FOR THE HUMANITIES AND THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART PRESENT

Learning and Teaching with Objects Saturday, March 14, 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Cleveland Museum of Art, Lecture Hall
11150 East Boulevard, Cleveland

This interdisciplinary program, co-sponsored by the Baker-Nord Center for the Humanities and the Cleveland Museum of Art, explores the use of the museum as a learning and teaching laboratory. Experts in such fields as pedagogy, cognitive science, conservation, and museology will present lectures. Break-out discussion sessions, led by area specialists, will be scheduled at CMA and other area museums. Certificates of attendance will be available for teachers. Free and open to the public, but registration required. For more information or to register call 216.368.8961 or click bakernord.org.

Guest Speakers include:

Slavko Milekic

Associate Professor, Cognitive Science & Digital Interface Design, University of the Arts in Philadelphia, and specialist in the design of digital tools for art education.

Kristina Woolsey

Project Director, Piers 15/17 Capital Project, Exploratorium (the Museum of Science, Art, and Human Perception). Formerly Distinguished Scientist at Apple Computer where she co-founded and directed the Apple Multimedia Lab.

James Zull
