ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

The Department of Music serves undergraduate and graduate students at Case Western Reserve University and all students at the Cleveland Institute of Music through our Joint Music Program. Our program stimulates the highest standards in academic and artistic excellence by offering a broad range of degree programs, courses, and ensemble experiences with faculty specializing in historical performance practice, music education, and musicology. Our campus (located in the heart of University Circle) provides a thriving and holistic learning experience where students feel comfortable in a diverse and supportive environment.

The Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Music is for students who want to major in music while receiving a comprehensive liberal arts education. Many undergraduate students combine musical study with another area of study through a double major or dual degree. The BA in Music offers excellent preparation for graduate work in music or professional studies in other fields.

The Bachelor of Science (BS) in Music Education is a professional degree for students interested in teaching music within K-12 schools. This program guides students through sequential instruction, critical thinking, and practical teaching experiences, ultimately leading to teaching licensure.

Our graduate programs provide rigorous academic study and professional training in the fields of musicology, historical performance practice, and music education, and help prepare the next generation of leaders in these fields.

For students who want to participate in musical activities on campus, our many ensembles are open to all CWRU students regardless of major and music lessons are offered through the JMP with CIM faculty (instructional fees apply).

Program

Dr. Christopher L. Clark, he/him, is the Director of Choirs and Lecturer in Music Education at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland Heights, Ohio. Dr. Clark has taught for 15 years in public school systems in Ohio and Massachusetts, most recently as Director of Vocal Music at the Southern Berkshire Regional School District in Sheffield, Massachusetts, teaching grades 3-12. His research interests include the intersection of choral music educators and their religiosity, group choral improvisation, and social justice. A 2013 Yale “Distinguished Music Educator”, Dr. Clark performs with Boston-based social justice choir Voices 21C, The Cleveland Chamber Choir, and is a frequent guest clinician, soloist, and presenter. He received his PhD from The University of Hartford’s Hartt School of Music, a double Masters in Music Education and Choral Conducting from Bowling Green State University, and a Bachelors in Music Education from Cleveland State University.

Devra Levine is the Director of Choirs at Eastlake North High School and Willowick Middle School, Director of the high school’s a cappella group known as Northern Lights, and Vocal Director of the annual high school musical. She graduated from The Ohio State University summa cum laude in 2016 with a Bachelor of Music Education and Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance. She is currently pursuing a Master of Music Education at Case Western Reserve University. Currently in her seventh year teaching at Eastlake North High School and Willowick Middle School, Levine has grown both programs by over 50% and has brought the schools’ choir programs to new heights. North High School’s Chorale has received superior ratings at OMEA adjudicated events, while the Northern Lights has performed on Fox 8 News as well as numerous a cappella festivals throughout Ohio. Levine focuses on providing her students with a rich variety of musical repertoire and opportunities for cognitive, embodied, social, and emotional growth.

Jessica L. G. Steuver [STY-ver], she/her, is a passionate music educator, clinician, performer, and lifelong learner. Originally from South Euclid, OH, Mrs. Steuver received her Bachelors degree in Music Education from Bowling Green State University, where she specialized in Choral Music. Mrs. Steuver and her husband moved to Cincinnati in 2012, where she taught early childhood and elementary general music, and middle school choir, and earned her Master of Music in Music Education from the University of Cincinnati’s College-Conservatory of Music in the spring of 2022. Mrs. Steuver is thrilled to return to Cleveland for her PhD program in Music Education, where she plans to further her research in the areas of mental health and choral participation post-COVID. ## Translations

Salmo 150

Praise the Lord in his sacred places,
praise him in the firmament of his power.
Praise him for his mighty acts,
praise him according to his excellent greatness.
Praise him with the sound of the trumpet,
praise him with the psaltery and the harp.
Praise him with the timbrel and the dance,
praise him with strings and pipes.
Praise him with high-sounding cymbals,
praise him with cymbals of joy.
Let everything that has breath praise the Lord!

Hela Rotan

Pulling, pulling. Rattan vine tug-of-war.
Drum of Java--
Java goes kaboomie!
Rope of "Rotan", it was broken.
It was broken, leaving two ends.
So let's meet, and both shake hands!
Mangos, mangos! Mangos fresh, mangos sweet!
Come and buy them!
Mangos from Mount Nila!
Young Miss, Young Miss, Lady Sweet-face, Lady Sweet-face.
Men go crazy!
Fine men lose their minds for her!
