Welcome to Florence Harkness Memorial Chapel

Florence Harkness Memorial Chapel (est. 1902) is known for its Tiffany stained-glass windows, soaring arches, and beautiful woodwork. The neo-Gothic structure, located in Mather Quad, commemorates the brief life of Florence Harkness Severance (Louis Henry Severance), the only daughter of Stephen V. Harkness and his second wife, Anna M. Richardson Harkness. This beautiful venue features a warm, intimate, and acoustically resonant space for Department of Music performances and events.

Accessibility:

We are committed to providing accessible facilities for all audience members. Please inform our staff if you require assistance or special accommodations.

Restrooms are located in the main lobby.

Noise and Disruptions:

Silence all mobile phones, electronic devices, and alarms during the performance. Please refrain from talking, whispering, or making noise that could distract performers or other audience members.

Photography and Recording:

Photography, video recording, and audio recording are strictly prohibited during performances, unless explicitly authorized by the event organizers. You are welcome to take photos before and after the performance.

Food and Beverages:

Outside food and beverages are not permitted inside the performance space. Receptions may take place after an event, and refreshments should be confined to designated areas.

Emergency Procedures:

Familiarize yourself with the nearest exits upon arrival. In the event of an emergency, please remain calm and follow the instructions provided by staff. Please alert staff if you require medical attention.

Campus Security Emergency Line: 216-368-3333

Lost and Found:

Items left behind after the performance will be collected and stored in our main office. Please contact us at music@case.edu to inquire about lost items.

Respect for the Venue:

Please respect the facility, instruments, and the property of others. Help us maintain a clean and welcoming environment by disposing of waste properly and keeping the space tidy. Follow the instructions of our ushers and staff when entering and exiting the venue.

DR. CHRISTOPHER L. CLARK, he/him, is the Director of Choirs and Instructor of Music Education at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland Heights, Ohio. Dr. Clark has taught for 15 years in public school systems in Ohio and Massachusetts, most recently as Director of Vocal Music at the Southern Berkshire Regional School District in Sheffield, Massachusetts, teaching grades 3-12. His research interests include the intersection of choral music educators and their religiosity, the choral music of Dame Ethel Smyth, and social justice. A 2013 Yale “Distinguished Music Educator”, Dr. Clark performs with Boston-based social justice choir Voices 21C, and is a frequent guest clinician, soloist, and presenter. He received his PhD from The University of Hartford’s Hartt School of Music, a double Masters in Music Education and Choral Conducting from Bowling Green State University, and a Bachelors in Music Education from Cleveland State University.

MS. JESSICA L. GALLAGHER-STEUVER [STY-ver], she/her, serves as the Instructor of Record of University Chorale at Case Western Reserve University, and the Artistic Director of Windsong, Cleveland’s Feminist Chorus. As a full-time PhD Candidate in Music Education at CWRU in Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Gallagher-Steuer focuses her research on intersectional feminism and queer studies in music education, mental health benefits of choral participation, and community music making. Mrs. Gallagher-Steuer holds degrees from Bowling Green State University (BM) and the University of Cincinnati’s College-Conservatory of Music (MM) and expects to graduate with her doctorate in Spring 2025. Prior to working with University Chorale and Windsong, Mrs. Gallagher-Steuer taught elementary and middle school choir in Cincinnati, Ohio.
