The Case Comprehensive Cancer Center and our Office of Cancer Disparities Research is pleased to announce the 7th Annual Cancer Disparities Symposium to be held Thursday- Friday, March 2-3, 2023.

The symposium will be held on the Case campus at Tinkham Veale University Center, 11038 Bellflower Rd.

This event will showcase cutting-edge research, with a focus on reducing and eliminating disparities in cancer, going from bench-to bedside-to-community and back. This important symposium will also promote the exchange of ideas and collaborative opportunities among scientists, clinicians, government and community representatives. There are opportunities for multi-institutional collaboration.

Agenda Highlights

- Plenary Speaker: Karriem Watson, D.H.Sc, MS, MPH is the chief engagement officer of the All of Us Research Program at the National Institutes of Health. In his role, he leads the Division of Engagement and Outreach, overseeing the program's efforts to foster relationships with participants, community partners, researchers, and providers across the United States.
- Keynote Speaker: Electra Paskett, PhD became the Marion N. Rowley Professor of Cancer Research at The Ohio State University in 2002. She is the Director of the Division of Cancer Prevention and Control in the College of Medicine, a professor in the Division of Epidemiology in the College of Public Health and the Associate Director for Population Sciences and Program Leader of the Cancer Control Program in the Comprehensive Cancer Center of the Ohio State University (OSU).

This activity is CME certified, therefore, I bring your attention to the following Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) Standards for Commercial Support:

STANDARD 4. Appropriate Management of Associated Commercial Promotion

4.1 Arrangements for commercial exhibits or advertisements cannot influence planning or interfere with the presentation, nor can they be a condition of the provision of commercial support for CME activities.

4.2 Product-promotion material or product-specific advertisement of any type is prohibited in or during CME activities. The juxtaposition of editorial and advertising material on the same products or subjects must be avoided. Live (staffed exhibits, presentations) or enduring (printed or electronic advertisements) promotional activities must be kept separate from CME. For live, face-to-face CME, advertisements and promotional materials cannot be displayed or distributed in the educational space immediately before, during, or after a CME activity. Providers of CME cannot allow representatives of Commercial Interests to engage in sales or promotional activities while in the space or in the place of the CME activity. (Refer to ACCME standards at www.accme.org)

You agree to hold Case Western Reserve University, its officers, trustees, employees, and agents harmless from any liability, damages or costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) that may arise as a result of you exhibiting at this CME Conference. Without limiting the breadth of this hold harmless agreement, you acknowledge that it shall extend to include the loss, damage, or theft of any equipment or materials you bring to the conference site as well as injuries that any of your employees or agents may incur.
