

2010 DISTINGUISHED ALUMNUS OF THE YEAR

R. William Cornell, Jr., D.D.S. '60

- Five decades practicing and teaching pediatric dentistry—continues even in retirement as a volunteer
- Directed the undergraduate pediatric dental clinical training program at CWRU
- Dedicated supporter of CWRU's dental school, recognizing the financial hardships dental schools face in providing facilities for clinical training
- Fellow of the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry
- Diplomate of the American Board of Pediatric Dentistry
- Elected into Omicron Kappa Upsilon, a national dental honor society in 1981
- Inducted into the American College of Dentists in 1988
- Honored with the outstanding teaching award by the Northwestern University Dental School

“Dr. Cornell is an outstanding educator and practitioner who has been a role model to thousands of dentists. Bill is one of those rare people who does the right things for the right reasons,” says Jerold Goldberg, Dean of the School of Dental Medicine.
