

Hazardous Materials Recall Policy.

Communication of recalled hazardous material is via the Case Daily, EHS newsletter, and direct contact with labs known to have the item in question. EHS follows the manufacturer's recommendations for the material.

Purchasing locates all labs that bought the material.

Hazardous recalled lab materials are disposed immediately.

The lab may return recalled lab materials that are not hazardous to the manufacturer for replacement if the option exists.

Reviewed: 4/12/2019