

Annual Report from the Office of Emeriti Affairs and Scholarly Activities of Emeriti Faculty During Calendar Year 2018

From the Office of Emeriti Affairs:

Emeriti Faculty

There are currently 396 emeriti faculty members, not including those whose appointments are expected to be effective January 2019; 319 emeriti faculty live in Ohio. The Office of Emeriti affairs has learned of the passing of 17 emeriti during 2018.

Emeriti Faculty Activities

Since last year's report, emeriti faculty members have been involved in the following activities:

- Emeriti Marshal

J. Thomas Mortimer, Emeritus of Biomedical Engineering, and Emeriti Marshal led emeriti faculty members in the academic procession for Spring Commencement and Fall Convocation.

- Conciliation Counselor

Wilbur (Bill) Leatherberry, Professor Emeritus of Law, has served for several years as the Conciliation Counselor for the University Faculty. Professor Jonathan L. Entin, the David L. Brennan Professor Emeritus of Law has succeeded him, beginning November 30, 2018.

- Commencement, May 20, 2018

- Fourteen emeriti faculty marched in the academic procession:
Bo Carlsson, Dorr Dearborn, David Farrell, Marion Good, Terry Hokenstad, Ulrich Hopfer, Lansing Hoskins, Jay Mann, Gheorghe Matteescu, Tom Mortimer, Spencer Neth, James Simmelink, May Wykle, and James Zull
- One emerita attended Commencement but did not march in the academic procession:
Nancy Kurfess Johnson

- Convocation, August 29, 2018

- Seven emeriti faculty marched in the academic procession:
Dorr Dearborn, David Farrell, Antonnette Graham, Terry Hokenstad, Jr., Charles King, Rpbert Lawry, and Thomas Mortimer

- Inamori Ethics Prize, September 13-14, 2018

The Office of Emeriti Affairs promoted the event in the hopes that many of the CWRU Emeriti would attend the ceremony, academic symposium, and recipient lecture by Dr. Farouk El-Baz, space scientist and geologist who played a central role in Apollo space missions and worldwide desert groundwater exploration.

Emeriti Academy

Activities of the Emeriti Academy continue to be well attended and have engaged many of the local Emeriti. In addition, for those who do not live near campus, many events have been videotaped and made available for viewing on the web. The Emeriti Academy Executive Committee and Programming Committee meet regularly to prepare exciting and engaging programming for all Emeriti of Case Western Reserve University. Events during the year included:

- Emeriti Theater and Dinner Event (February)
- Panel Discussion on Active and Meaningful Aging (April)
- Emeriti Book club (April)
- Emeriti/[U]Tech Session on Use of Smartphones (May)
- Collaboration with Siegal Lifelong Learning Program and Origins Science Scholars Program (three sessions) on Circadian Rhythms
- Emeriti Book Discussion on CWRU Common Reading Selection with First Year Students
- Breakfast for Newly-Appointed Emeriti
- Annual Meeting of the Emeriti Academy – Speaker was Provost Ben Vinson, III
- Emeriti/[U]Tech Session on Social Media, Tech Tip sharing, and Individual Consultations with [U]Tech Staff

Services Available through the Emeriti Affairs Office

The Secretary of the University Faculty and Director of the Office of Emeriti Affairs provides the following services:

- Invitations to campus events.
- Assistance with building and parking access.
- General support responding to inquiries and providing resources.
- Maintenance of database and an annual directory with contact information for emeriti faculty.
- Maintenance of informational website about emeriti appointments and services.
- Serves as administrative liaison to the CWRU Emeriti Academy.

New Emeriti Faculty Appointments

Since last year's report 34 faculty have been appointed to emeritus status including those submitted for consideration December 11, 2018 for appointment to become effective January 1 or February 1, 2019. One faculty member was approved but has agreed to defer retirement, for a total of 35 approved this reporting period.

Case School of Engineering

- Maurice L. Adams Jr., Professor Emeritus Mechanical & Aerospace Engineering
- John Angus, Kent H. Smith Professor Emeritus of Engineering
 - Professor Emeritus Isaac Greber and I published a paper on the tribo-electric charge transfer between dielectric solids of identical composition.
- John Blackwell, Leonard Case Jr. Professor Emeritus of Engineering and Professor Emeritus of Macromolecular Science and Engineering
- Patrick Crago, Professor Emeritus of Biomedical Engineering
- Isaac Greber, Professor Emeritus of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering
- Jaikrishnan R. Kadambi, Professor Emeritus, Department of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering
 - I was awarded the 2018 Henry R. Worthington medal by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME) during their annual winter meeting IMECE 2018 held in November 11-15 in Pittsburgh, Pa.. The award citation was for extensive educational and research contributions to the design and development of reliable and efficient pumping technologies over the last 20 years, particularly slurry pumps for the fossil fuel and mining industry; and blood compatible pumps as temporary substitutes for the human heart with relatively less shear stresses inflicted on the blood , as well as bladeless blood pumps for use during heart surgery.
- Joseph M. Mansour, Professor Emeritus, Department of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering
- Frank Merat, Associate Professor Emeritus, Department of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science
 - I taught ENGR 210 (203 students) after the instructor resigned in the middle of the spring semester. I am advising one Ph.D. student and three M.S. students. I am advising one student team which plans to compete in the January 2019 ION Autonomous Snowplow Competition.
- J. Thomas Mortimer, Professor Emeritus of Biomedical Engineering
 - Continue to build ANCtoolkit.com, used in spring 2018 EBME327. Was the opening act for the 2018 Ford Lecture. Kumsa, D. W.; Hudak, E. M.; Bhadra, N.; Mortimer, J. T., Electron transfer processes occurring on platinum neural stimulating electrodes: Pulsing experiments for cathodic-first, charge-imbalanced, biphasic pulses in rat subcutaneous tissues. This submission to Journal of Neural Engineering

- Pirouz Pirouz, Emeritus Professor Department of Materials Science and Engineering
- Eli Reshotko, Kent H. Smith Professor Emeritus of Engineering

College of Arts & Sciences

- Catherine Albers, Professor Emerita of Theater
 - I most recently appeared as the lead actor in JOHN at Dobama Theater. I also was a featured performer in a feature film and have continued with the organization I helped to found, The Great Lakes Michael Chekhov Consortium. We are entering our 10th year of training and certifying actors and teachers in the Michael Chekhov Acting Technique.
- Alfred Anderson, Professor Emeritus, Department of Chemistry
 - Published the following: 1.A. B. Anderson, Pourbaix Diagrams for H₂O Oxidation to Adsorbed OH on Pt(111) and Why They Differ from Those for Buld Solids, J. Phys. Chem. C 122, 9958â€“9964(2018). Continuing on monograph On Electron Transfer and Electrocatalysis Theories
- B S Chandrasekhar, Perkins Professor of Physics Emeritus
 - I retired from CWRU thirty years ago. I have been since then a Permanent Guest at the Walther Meissner Institute of the Bavarian Academy of Arts and Sciences. I interact with the students and staff there, learning from them and sometimes even teaching them. I am a contributor to the Deccan Herald newspaper in Bangalore, with articles on topical scientific subjects. A recent example was an article on Gravitational Waves.
- Gary M. Ciepluch, Associate Professor Emeritus, Department of Music
 - Continuous Noted Activity throughout the United States in the following disciplines: 2018 Guest Conducting, Workshops, Clinics, Adjudication, Consultation, and Teaching in the following States: Wisconsin, Ohio, Texas, Idaho, California, Illinois, Colorado.
- Ross W. Duffin, Distinguished University Professor Emeritus and Fynette H. Kulas Professor Emeritus of Music
- Linda Ehrlich, Associate Professor Emerita, Department of Modern Languages and Literatures
