

Faculty Handbook

Chapter 2, Article VI, Section B

Sec. B. Nominating Committee

Par. 1. The Nominating Committee shall consist of the chair-elect of the Faculty Senate, ex officio, and nine voting members of the University Faculty, (if possible, those who serve or those who have served as senators or members of faculty senate standing committees), one representing each of the eight constituent faculties, to be selected by the faculty senators representing that faculty, and also including one representative from the Department of Physical Education and Athletics. Members of the Nominating Committee shall not also serve as deans within their constituent faculties; if a member is appointed to serve as dean during her/his term on the Nominating Committee, s/he shall immediately resign from the Nominating Committee upon appointment. The term of membership on the Nominating Committee shall be two years. A member of the Nominating Committee may serve no more than two terms consecutively. Members shall serve overlapping two-year terms.

Par. 2. The Nominating Committee shall nominate candidates for the position of chair-elect and for membership of the standing and ad hoc committees of the Faculty Senate, unless otherwise specified. The Faculty Senate shall elect a chair-elect and members of such standing and ad hoc committees from the nominees named by the Nominating Committee, except that additional nominations shall be invited from the floor. No nominations shall be valid unless the proposed nominee shall have signified in advance a willingness to serve.