CWRU Police

Emergency #: 216.368.3333
Non-Emergency #: 216.368.3300

- These numbers are answered 24/7 and important numbers to save in your cell phone

Call these numbers...

- For any emergency – crime, fire, medical, etc.
- If you have been a victim of, or witness to a crime or need a police report
- To report suspicious activity
- For maintenance/parking issues

CWRU Police & Security Staff

- 30 certified police officers
- 14 mobile security officers
- 20 building security officers
- 17 dispatch and support security staff.
- Contract security on campus
- We patrol the area in marked patrol vehicles, bicycles and on foot.
- CWRU Police officers are commissioned, armed and have arrest powers anywhere in University Circle.

We are a service oriented department that focuses on keeping our community safe through community policing, crime prevention, and emergency response.

CWRU Police Safety Tips

- We are a safe but urban campus, as such, some things to be aware of:
- THEFT - Most common targets are bicycles, laptops & cell phones. Lock your bicycle and keep an eye on valuables, especially in general access areas-library, student center, etc. Register your bike & get a Ulock.
- THEFTS FROM AUTO - Keep your junk in your trunk!
- PANHANDLERS - Just say no thank you. Call 216.368.3333 to report.
- ROBBERY – Does not occur often, but statistically, occurs most often to individuals walking by themselves at night. Use campus bus system, Safe Ride & escort services. Be aware of your surroundings, even when using electronics..
- TAILGATING - Call 216.368.3333 to report if someone follows you into an access controlled building. Remember to get a clothing description.

Safe Ride

After-hours
Transportation Option

- Hours: 6pm to 3am
- Clearly identifiable vehicles
- Driven by Security Officers

Request a Ride:

Student Conduct at CWRU

George O'Connell
Director

Office of Student Conduct &
Community Standards

Thwing Center 305

Office of Student Conduct & Community Standards

Mission - We strive to take an educational approach with students. Our goal is to help students make good decisions while maintaining accountability and community standards for the University.

Student Code of Conduct - We are responsible for the student conduct process for the entire University. This includes conduct policy issues with all students (undergraduate, graduate and professional).

Academic Integrity Policy- We work with faculty, students and the Office of Undergraduate Studies to support the Academic Integrity Process for undergraduate students.

Jurisdiction of Policies:

- On-Campus - policies apply to any part of the University
- Off-Campus - policies also may apply to off campus locations including Study Abroad, the vicinity of CWRU, University Sponsored Events, online.

What Should Students Expect ??

Respect and Fairness

Due Process

Decisions based on information/evidence

Balancing individual with community

Balancing educational opportunity with accountability

Common Issues

Behavioral Issues

Underage Alcohol Use/Possession

Alcohol Hospital Transport

Drugs & Controlled Substances

(Medical Marijuana still Prohibited)

Property Damage & Theft

Fake ID's

Fire Safety

Failing to Comply with Staff/Police

Smoking

Guest Responsibility

Typical A.I. Outcomes

1st: Failure in Assignment

2nd: Failure in Class

3rd +: Probation, Separation

Outcomes and Records

Behavioral Conduct Outcomes:

- Educational Measure - Let's try to learn from this...
- Warning - Just a reminder...
- Deferred Probation - I'm a little worried...
- Disciplinary Probation - I'm really getting worried about you...
- University Separation - Let's take a break...
- University Expulsion - Things aren't going to work out...

Having a Conduct Record:

- Depending on seriousness could impact future goals.
- Confidential
- Relatively small % of students have a conduct record
- Very small % have multiple conduct incidents

Tips for Your Student

- Be familiar with policies and community expectations.
- Be respectful of others
- Make healthy choices with a focus on academics & future
- Let someone know about problematic or concerning issues
- Ask questions when unsure
- Learn from poor choices and mistakes
- Understand there are consequences for poor decisions

Tips for Supporting Your Student

- Stay connected & check-in
- Discuss making good choices
- Discuss the impact of poor choices
- Encourage involvement on campus
- Coach them to advocate for themselves
- Be aware of campus resources and encourage use of them
- Trust your student...but a little healthy skepticism is good
- If they make a mistake, help them learn from the experience

Advocate for Gender Violence Prevention & Response

What Is An Advocate?

- The Campus Advocate assists Undergraduate & Graduate Students (of any gender) who have experienced power based personal violence (sexual harassment; dating violence; stalking; bullying; unhealthy relationship issues) in navigating their recovery rights & resources.

- The Campus Advocate's role is to help students understand, evaluate, & choose among services & resources available both on & off campus, to clarify the University process for sexual misconduct incidents, & refer students to appropriate resource(s) once they have identified a recovery plan & goals.

All services & sessions with the Campus Advocate are FREE & CONFIDENTIAL.

Megan Long | M.S.S.A, LSW

What Is Sexual Misconduct?

Under our policy, Sexual Misconduct includes:

- Sexual Harassment
- Stalking
- Sexual Assault -
 - Non-consensual contact or activity
 - Non-consensual intercourse
 - Forced contact or activity
 - Forced intercourse
- Intimate Partner Violence (Dating & Domestic Violence)
- Exploitation

Title IX Reporting Resources for Students

University Staff, Faculty, Police Are Mandated Reporters

- The university community member's duty to report includes instances in which that member learns of the allegation:
 - From witnessing sexual misconduct
 - From a person who has experienced the sexual misconduct;
 - From a person who witnessed the sexual misconduct; or
 - From a person who heard about the sexual misconduct from another individual.

Students Are NOT Mandated Reporters But We Encourage Students To Help Us In Ending Violence On Campus Through Anonymous Reporting Options Or To Speak With Their Campus Advocate

I AM IN CRISIS - WHAT DO I DO?

I Need To Speak With Someone CONFIDENTIAL IMMEDIATELY:

A confidential resource is NOT required to report allegations of sexual misconduct to designated reporting representatives.

- Student Advocate 216.368.8639
- SAFE Line (24/7) 216.368.7777
- Counseling Services (24/7) 216.368.5872
- Health Services (24/7) 216.368.2450
- Inter-Religious Center 216.421.9614
- Cleveland Rape Crisis Center (24/7) 216.619.6192

I Feel UNSAFE and Need To Contact Campus Police:

- Emergency 216.368.3333
- Non-emergency 216.368.3300
- Safe Ride 216.368.3000

I Need URGENT MEDICAL Support:

- Call 911 and/or go directly to the emergency room at any local hospital
- Confidential Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner at University Hospitals 216.844.0372
- To request that the Student Advocate accompany you to the hospital 216.368.8639
- To request a Cleveland Rape Crisis Center hospital advocate (24/7) 216.619.6192

I Need EMERGENCY CONTRACEPTIVE (Plan B/Ella):

- Seek the emergency contraceptive pill within 3-5 days from unprotected sex
- Available over-the-counter at most pharmacies (CVS, Rite Aid, Target, etc.)
- Call University Health Services or walk-in during business hours 216.368.3066
- Planned Parenthood 216.851.1880

I Want To Report An Incident to A NONCONFIDENTIAL SOURCE

A non-confidential source is a mandated reporter and must report any instance of sexual misconduct to the university.

- Office of Title IX 216.368.3066
- Office of Student Affairs 216.368.2020
- Office for Inclusion, Diversity, and Equal Opportunity 216.368.8877
- Residence Life Staff 216.368.6325
- LGBT Center 216.368.5428
- Office of Multicultural Affairs 216.368.2904
