

2023 Discover Days for Parents and Families

Connect and learn more about Case Western Reserve University and your student's experience.

Wednesday, Jan. 11

9 a.m. Residence Hall Move-In

Upon arrival, your student will check in to receive their ID, residence hall room key and important information. Instructions for move-in will be sent via email prior to your arrival on campus.

4 p.m. New Student Check-In and Welcome

Tinkham Veale University Center, Ballroom B (D4)

Students will meet to kick off their Discover Days experience. They'll learn more about what to expect, meet the orientation leaders and get to know other new students.

4 p.m. Parent and Family Welcome

Tinkham Veale University Center, Ballroom A (D4)

Hear from Case Western Reserve University leadership to learn more about your relationship with the university, sources of support and what to expect from Parent and Family Orientation.

Thursday, Jan. 12

8:30 a.m. Breakfast and Mingle

Tinkham Veale University Center, Ballroom (D4)

A light continental breakfast and coffee will be available.

9:15 a.m. University Welcome

Tinkham Veale University Center, Ballroom B (D4)

Join all new students and their families for our official university welcome from President Eric W. Kaler.

10:20 a.m. Student Advancement and Academic Resources

Tinkham Veale University Center, Ballroom (D4)

Join Student Advancement staff members for a discussion about academic resources, programs and services to help students achieve their academic goals. Learn about Supplemental Instruction; Peer Tutoring; Study Group +1; Spoken English programs and seminars; and one-on-one assistance with time management, study skills, test-taking, note-taking strategies and more. Presenters will also discuss UNIV 100, a popular five-week, non-credit seminar on study skills and time management.

Thursday, Jan. 12 (continued)

11:15 a.m. Dean of Students: Advocacy and Support

Tinkham Veale University Center, Ballroom (D4)

The Dean of Students Office supports students on their journey to become empowered self-advocates who are able to identify and overcome obstacles to ensure their holistic success and wellness. This presentation will give a brief overview of these student support services and discuss how families and friends can work with the Dean of Students Office to help guide our students through transitions, student life, wellness activities and other needs.

12 p.m. Lunch

Tomlinson Cafe (D5), Tinkham Veale University Center (D4) or explore Uptown (E3)

Join your student for lunch in the Tomlinson Cafe (D5) or choose one of the options in the Tinkham Veale University Center (D4). We also encourage you to explore options in Uptown.

1:30 p.m. Learn By Doing: Internships, Research and more

Strosacker Auditorium (D5)

Experiential education is an important part of the Case Western Reserve experience. Through experiential education, students are able to apply classroom learning to real-world settings. Learn about the different opportunities available to students, including internships, practicum, co-ops, entrepreneurship and research.

2:20 p.m. Managing CWRU Finances

Strosacker Auditorium (D5)

Representatives from the Offices of University Financial Aid and Student Financial Services will discuss financial aid, student employment, scholarships, loans, payment plans and the student billing system. Staff will review payment due dates and answer questions on both financial aid and the payment process.

3:10 p.m. Safety and Student Conduct

Strosacker Auditorium (D5)

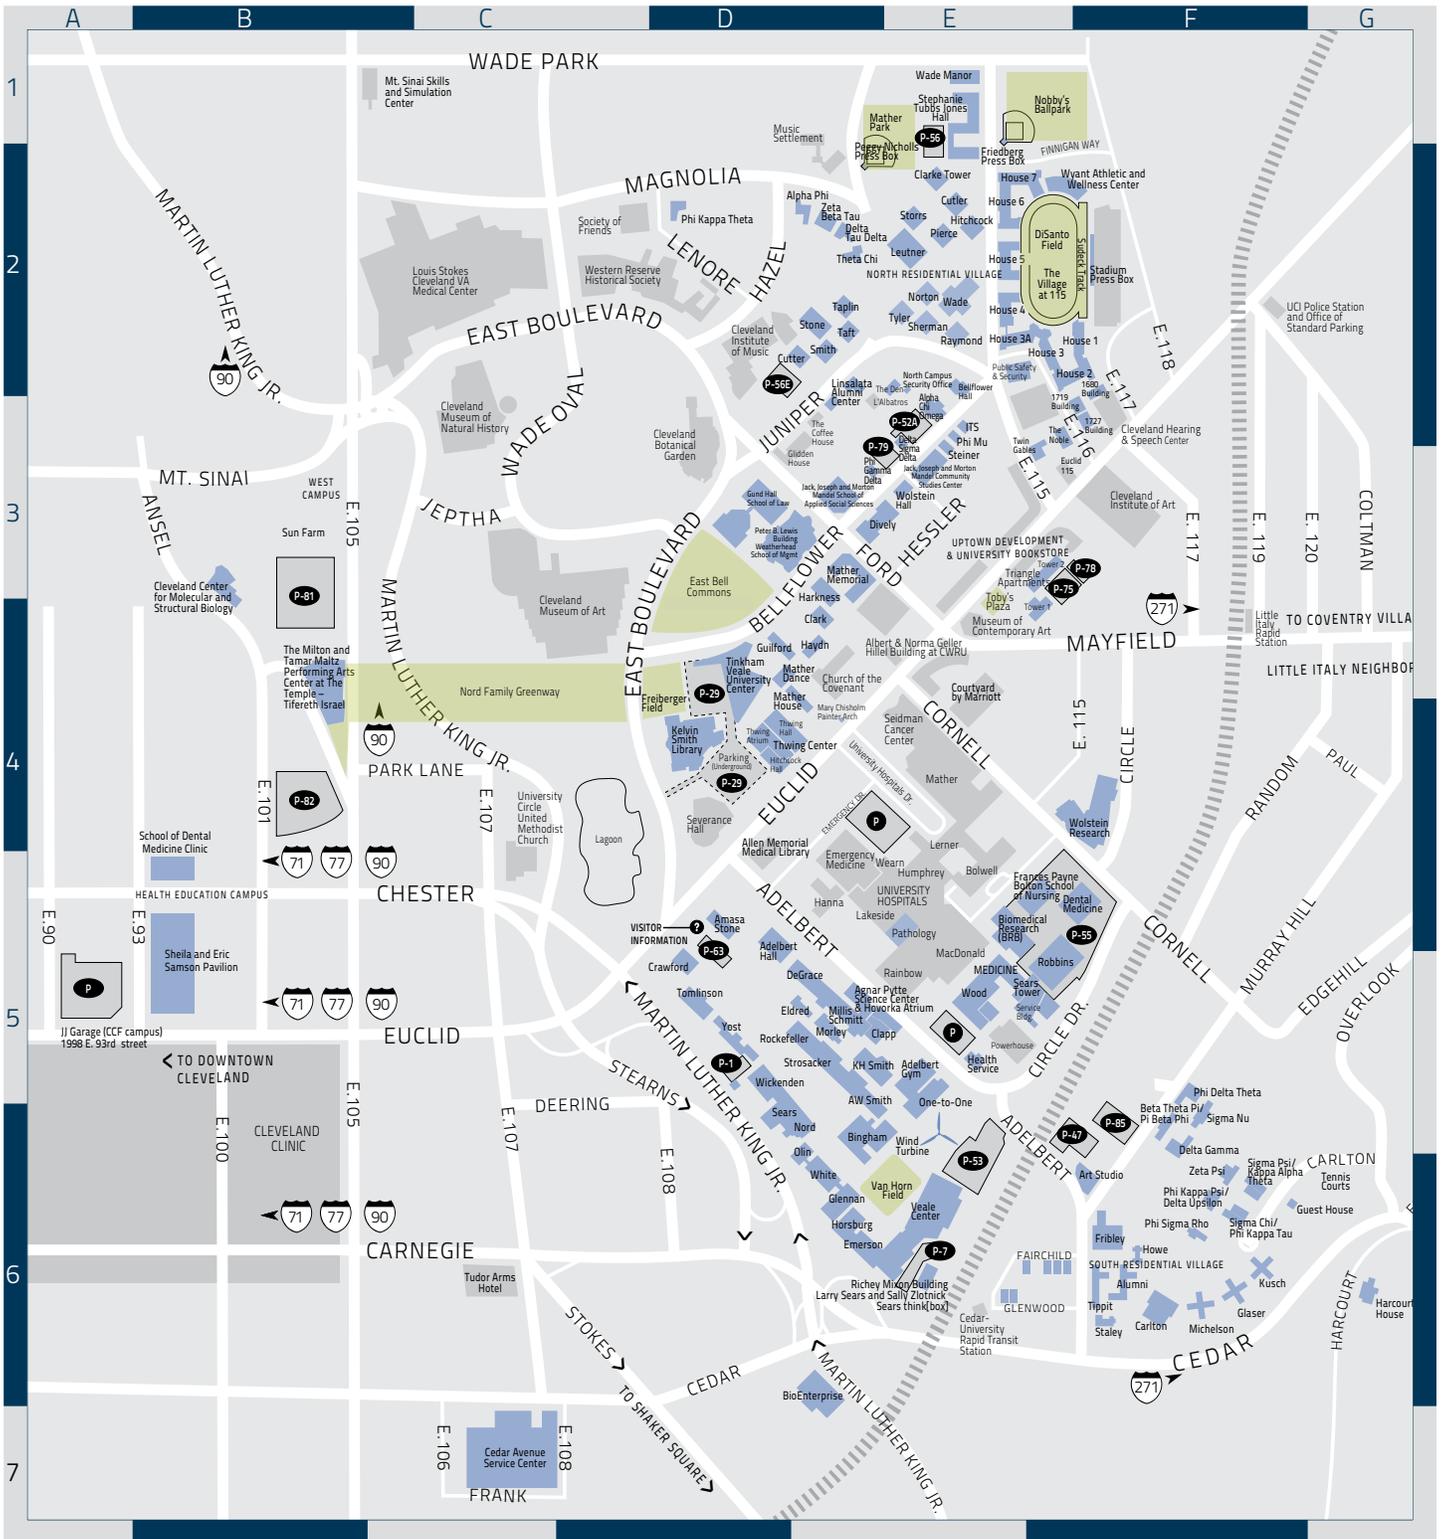

The Division of Public Safety will review safety information, crime prevention tips and safety-related services, such as transport services and emergency notification. The University Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards will discuss how and why your student may interact with the office, expectations about behavior and the importance of making good decisions. The Flora Stone Mather Center is a community space focusing on advancing gender equity through leadership, education and survivor advocacy, and research.

4 p.m. Information Fair

Tinkham Veale University Center, Ballroom (D4)

The Information Fair is your opportunity to connect with campus resources, ask questions and learn how CWRU students utilize programs and services offered by the university.

This schedule is up-to-date as of Friday, Jan. 6.
