CWRU in Brief

Case Western Reserve University is a research-intensive university, one of only 26 private institutions in the prestigious AAU. We prepare ambitious, curious students for career, grad school, and life. We offer an experience-based undergraduate education, in the arts and sciences, engineering, management, and nursing. Graduate programs are also offered in law, medicine, dental medicine, and applied social sciences.

10:1 Student:Faculty
Ensures small classes (61% of classes have fewer than 20 students) and plentiful research opportunities.

Student Body
4,600 undergrads
5,600 graduate and professional students

CWRU students are from all 50 states and 91 countries

Who We Look For
CWRU looks for students who are intellectually curious, who have demonstrated success in challenging coursework, and who are involved in their communities and in extracurriculars of all kinds.
ACCOMMODATIONS

There are a variety of housing options available for students studying at Case Western Reserve University. Students may choose to live in university-owned housing or off-campus, privately-owned housing. Housing on campus for exchange students is not guaranteed, but is often available.

UNIVERSITY-OWNED HOUSING

University-owned housing options for upper-class students include North and South Campus Residence Halls, the Village at 115th, North Property Management Apartments, the Apartments at 1576, and the Triangle Apartments. Students who wish to live in university housing can visit housing.case.edu for additional information and may email housing@case.edu or call 216-368-3780 with questions. Confirmed move in dates for 2016-2017 are August 1th or 18th from 8AM to 10PM.
OFF CAMPUS HOUSING

Students also have the option to live in off-campus housing in the University Circle area. Numerous off-campus options are available for students to explore. The Uptown Apartments, located minutes away from campus with convenient access to Uptown’s many shops and restaurants, are particularly popular. Students interested in living off-campus can search ALOHA, the Off-Campus Housing Listing Service available from the university’s Office of Housing & Residence Life website, for an apartment that meets their needs.

UNIVERSITY CIRCLE
Located conveniently in the center of CWRU’s campus, University Circle - Cleveland’s cultural district - offers residents a variety of restaurants, shops, and easy access to RTA and HealthLine public transportation stops.

LITTLE ITALY
Within walking distance of CWRU, Historic Little Italy is known for its art galleries and fine Italian-inspired cuisine. There is always something going on in Little Italy, such as live entertainment, art walks, parades, and the Feast of the Assumption.

SHAKER SQUARE
Located where the city of Cleveland intersects Shaker Heights, one of the many historic suburbs, Shaker Square is the oldest shopping district in Ohio. Rapid transit lines run directly from the square to downtown, the waterfront, and the airport, and students can choose between over 4,000 high quality rental units.

COVENTRY VILLAGE
Coventry Village is a diverse neighborhood home to eclectic shops and eateries including record stores, book vendors, consignment shops, bars, and music venues, all just minutes from campus!
MEAL PLAN

Students who live on campus will have meals in campus dining halls. The cost of the meal plan will vary depending on the plan they choose. Students on the Case Western Reserve meal plan are permitted to dine at a variety of locations on campus, including Leutner and Fribley traditional dining halls, Grab-It and Bag-It, Tomlinson Café, and Tinkham Veale Center restaurants, many of which serve dishes made on-site daily using locally sourced meats, produce, dairy, and bread products.

DINING

In its list of “America’s Best Food Cities” for 2015, Time.com ranked Cleveland in seventh place, ahead of San Francisco (#19), New Orleans (#15), Chicago (#13), New York City (#10), and Los Angeles (#9). Whether you want to try Cleveland’s traditional Polish-influenced cuisine, trendy fusion bar foods, or New-American dishes developed by Michael Symon, Cleveland’s own Iron Chef, there’s something to please every palate.

ORIENTATION

At Case Western Reserve University, we conduct an orientation for our new students, including our exchange students. Orientation is meant to smooth the transition to Case Western Reserve University by introducing students to campus, Cleveland, and new friends before the start of the semester. Orientation provides students with the academic and cultural support needed to feel comfortable and confident when classes begin.
