This workshop is designed to provide faculty and staff with tips on Chinese character pronunciation. Bring your class roster and learn how to correctly pronounce students' names and more.

INTERNATIONAL FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES FOR FACULTY AND STAFF

September 17, 2015 | 12-1:30pm

Tomlinson Hall Large Conference Room, 1st Floor 135

Ever wonder what international funding opportunities are available for faculty and staff? This session will offer information on internationally focused grants and other funding options including Fulbright, faculty seed grants, overseas site visit funding, and more.

SUPPORTING INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS IN THE CLASSROOM

October 15, 2015 | 12-1:30pm

Allen Memorial Building, Herrick Room

Communication failures in class may be the result of cultural differences and different academic environment experiences. Join ESS, UCITE, and the Center for International Affairs to learn some common cultural characteristics for international students and gain a new perspective when teaching a culturally diverse class. A student panel will answer questions after the workshop.

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK: NOVEMBER 16–20, 2015

International Education Week is a national celebration of the benefits of international education and global exchange. The Center for International Affairs, along with numerous collaborators, have organized a variety of events for faculty, staff, students and community members. Visit our website for a full list of exciting and informative activities scheduled throughout the week: www.case.edu/international/IEW
