

J-1 STUDENT INTERN APPLICATION HEALTH INSURANCE CERTIFICATION

Pursuant to Regulation 22 CFR 62.15\(a\)\(4\)-\(5\), J-1 Exchange Visitors and their dependents are required to maintain health insurance during the entirety of their stay in J-1 status in the U.S.

RESOURCES

The following are two options that the University Counseling and Health Services recommends as health insurance plans for non-enrolled international visitors to Case Western Reserve University. International Student Services staff are not trained in health insurance regulations, so if you have questions about this, please contact these providers directly. A very helpful resource for understanding US health insurance can be found here.
