

Readings for 2020 Battisti Lecture

Charles Gardner Geyh, Judicial Independence as an Organizing Principle, 10 ANNUAL REVIEW OF LAW AND SOCIAL SCIENCE 185 (2014),

<https://www.annualreviews.org/doi/abs/10.1146/annurev-lawsocsci-110413-030849> (PDF version available from this URL and through faculty publications page of the IU Jerome Hall Law Library, <http://law.indiana.libguides.com/geyh>)

Charles Gardner Geyh, Judicial Selection Reconsidered: A Plea for Radical Moderation, 35 HARVARD JOURNAL OF LAW AND PUBLIC POLICY 623 (2012), https://www.harvard-jlpp.com/wp-content/uploads/sites/21/2013/10/35_2_623_Geyh-1.pdf

Charles Gardner Geyh, The State of the Onion: Peeling Back the Layers of America's Ambivalence Toward Judicial Independence, 82 INDIANA LAW JOURNAL 1215 (2007), available in Hein Online and through faculty publications page of the IU Jerome Hall Law Library, <http://law.indiana.libguides.com/geyh>)

Stephen B. Burbank, What Do We Mean by "Judicial Independence"?, 64 OHIO STATE LAW JOURNAL 323 (2003), available in Hein Online and through faculty publications page at the University of Pennsylvania Law School, https://www.law.upenn.edu/cf/faculty/research/details.cfm?search=1&detail=1&research_id=694#

Jonathan L. Entin, Getting What You Pay For: Judicial Compensation and Judicial Independence, 2011 UTAH LAW REVIEW 25, available in Hein Online and at https://scholarlycommons.law.case.edu/faculty_publications/84/