BE READY.

Our innovative curriculum will challenge you.

Our outstanding professors will inspire you.

Our dedicated alumni will mentor you.

And our welcoming community will embrace you.

We're committed to providing you opportunities for experiential learning from the start of your program, which means you'll graduate with practical skills, expertise in your chosen specialty and the tools to excel in your career.

Case Western Reserve University School of Law is a nationally-renowned school with an intimate size where you won't get lost in the crowd. In our top ten experiential education program (preLaw magazine), you'll receive three years of hands-on experience that will prepare you for immediate success.

With five journals, 10 clinics and nearly 30 student organizations, you can work with your peers across a rich range of activities to build lifelong personal and professional relationships.

Looking for additional real-world experience? Join CWRU's nine award-winning moot court and mock trial teams. We were recently ranked fifth in the country for mock trial success and tenth for moot court success (Gavel and NICA LSRanking).

We're minutes from downtown Cleveland and located in the center of the country's #4 arts district, University Circle. Here, you'll be steps from some of the top museums and music venues in the U.S.
