2023 PRISM AWARD NOMINATION FORM

The Prism Award is given annually to an office, department, person or entity at Case Western Reserve University in recognition of their significant contribution to the campus LGBTQ+ community. The award honors work accomplished during the current academic year, or significant contributions over a period of time that have impacted LGBTQ+ life on CWRU's campus.

Past Prism Award winners include:

- 2020 OSTEM/Beck Schubert
- 2019 Lynn Singer (School of Medicine)
- 2018 SAVE
- 2017 Jamie Cook (Greek Life Office) & Lisa Nielson (Center for Women)
- 2016 Matthew Garrett (Dept. of Music), Jonathan Wehner (Undergraduate Admissions) & Joshua Terchek (Institutional Research) Alumni Association

Applications and nominations will be accepted until Friday, March 31, 2023. The honoree will be announced at Lavender Graduation on the evening of Friday, April 28, 2023 in the Linsalata Alumni Center, 11310 Juniper Road.

To nominate a CWRU office, department, person or entity, submit a completed copy of this form along with a letter describing the nominee's achievements and contributions. Up to three nomination letters may be included for each nominee. Email completed nomination materials as a single pdf file, to mailey.lorio@case.edu.
