PROGRAM

January 26 - 30, 2018

Hosted by Glenn Starkman

Professor of Physics and Astronomy

Director of the Center for Educational Research in

Cosmology and Astrophysics

Director of the Institute for the Science of Origins

Iceland . . . the Land of Fire and Ice, where volcanoes rise from the horizon and you can walk along glaciers. A land with the opportunity to see the Northern Lights and listen to the thunderous flood of water pouring over the rock-faced cliffs. Come to Iceland for a long weekend to witness the land both ancient and modern - a place to wander on the land that nurtured the sagas and close your day with the freshest fish and a craft beer at a new pub.

Take a long weekend and soak in the stunning scenery, the vivid and well-kept history, the immaculately preserved culture. It is a land like no other. Staying in Reykjavik, you are surrounded by local shops and countless dining options catering to modern and ancient tastes. Use your free time to dig deeper into the culture of Iceland's museums or indulge your wild side with an active outdoor adventure. Iceland's wide array of options lay at your feet.

Indulge your intellect with Professor Starkman as he shares the science and behind the aurora borealis before heading out, weather permitting, in an attempt to see the real thing! If we don't succeed we'll try again the next night . . . and the next. Take a long weekend and immerse in a land both modern and timeless and join family, friend and classmates from Case Western Reserve University.

Tuesday, January 23 - Evening departure from Boston or New York, where we board our direct Iceland Air service to Iceland.
Overnight: Plane

Wednesday, January 24 - Arriving in Reykjavik, we first head north to the shores of the Hvalfjörður (literally the whale Fjord). Turning inland, we follow the course of one of Iceland's largest Salmon rivers, the Laxa í Kjós, and stop to view the spectacular waterfall, the Þórufoss. At this location Drago burned the goats and their keeper. From here we travel to Hengill for a fantastic view over the tectonic rift valley where the fight scene between the Hound and Brienne took place. Taking a deeper look at Þingvellir, we return to visit the home of the Arryns and the moon gate. Walking into the gorge from the east side we explore the waterfall where Arya rode off on horseback after she left the Hound for dead. Nearby, you'll remember the spot where the wildlings meet up with the cannibals after Jon Snow escaped. We leave our discoveries at Þingvellir, the epicenter of Iceland's political, commercial, and cultural history for over a thousand years arriving at our hotel near Selfoss with time to enjoy the facilities before we gather for dinner.
(B, D) Overnight: Selfoss Area

Thursday, January 25 - This morning we drive to Þjórsárdalur and visit the "Þjóðveldisbær," the 11th-century Viking lodge that served as a location for the massacre of the people of the hamlet (4th season, 3rd episode) and we are introduced to the Olly Valley. The valley is wonderful by itself and very important historically. We include admission into the Viking lodge, although no scenes were actually shot inside. From here we drive, weather permitting, into the Gjá, a natural "Rivendell" and one of the most beautiful spots in Iceland. On the edge of the highlands, this naturally-formed hidden gorge held some of the conversation between the Hound and Aria. From here, we drive down to the south coast to Sólheimajökull to visit the location of some of the winter scenes north of the wall, seen in the second series. Take advantage of an opportunity here to walk on the glacier. We round out our travels with a visit to the Black Beach and Seljalandsfoss and Skogafoss, two beautiful waterfalls that are on our route. We return to our hotel for dinner.
(B, D) Overnight: Selfoss Area

Friday, January 26 - This morning we revisit the Reykjanes Peninsula. Located on a rift zone between two continents, the North American plate and the Eurasian plate, we will see pools of boiling mud, the air heavy with the smell of sulfur, and have the opportunity to walk on top of the North Atlantic Ridge - the only place in the world where this is possible. We'll stop in the thriving fishing port of Grindavik where we'll enjoy a traditional fisherman's lunch here before we continue to Reykjavik for a free evening.
(B, L) Overnight: Reykjavik

Friday, January 26 - Evening departure from Boston or New York, where we board our direct Iceland Air service to Iceland.
Overnight: Plane

Saturday, January 27 - Your early morning arrival in Iceland will be met at the airport and you will be escorted to your hotel in Reykjavik, where we have arranged for your rooms to be ready for immediate check in upon arrival. You'll sit down to enjoy a sumptuous breakfast buffet while your luggage is taken to your room and your tour guide organizes the check-in. After breakfast, you'll have time to unpack, relax and rest up from the overnight flight. You'll also have time for lunch before heading out for a bus tour of Reykjavik - a wonderful introduction to one of Europe's smallest capital cities! The tour covers the Old Town, the shopping districts, the Parliament, Hofdi House, Hallgrim's church and much more! Upon your return to the hotel, you gather for an introductory lecture, followed by dinner at the hotel restaurant. This evening you will embark upon your first attempt to view the Northern Lights.

(B, D) Overnight: Reykjavik

Sunday, January 28 - Today we capture the essence of Iceland - the Golden Circle tour. Our first stop is Þingvellir National Park, site of the world's first parliament. Here we will walk from America to Europe! We continue on to see the majestic dual-folding Gullfoss waterfall and gaze upon Geysers, which spout steam with amazing force. This afternoon we'll visit the important religious center at Skallholt and stop to peer into the icy depths of Keri volcanic crater. This evening we'll enjoy a traditional Icelandic lobster feast at a local restaurant on our way back to the hotel.
(B, D) Overnight: Reykjavik

Monday, January 29 - A free day. Explore the galleries and museums of the city, enjoy the tax-free shopping or pamper yourself in one of the many local spas. There will also be a variety of optional activities available; from taking a snowmobile safari to the top of a glacier, to riding an Icelandic pony or going in search of whales.
(B) Overnight: Reykjavik

Tuesday, January 30 - Today we take a brief drive down the exotic, moon-like Reykjanes peninsula, first stopping at Bessastadir, the official estate for Iceland's President. Then we bathe in the renowned Blue Lagoon, an azure pool of mineral-rich warm water amid a lava field. There are wonderful facilities to shower and change at the site before we continue to the airport for our return flights to Boston or New York.
(B) Overnight: Reykjavik

Key to included meals: B = Breakfast, L = Lunch, D = Dinner
