Day 3 | Marrakech

Enrichment: Moroccan History. From the Berber dynasty to modern day Morocco, gain insight into the fascinating history of this remarkable country.

Discovery: Exploring the Monuments of Marrakech. Exotic Marrakech is a melting pot of African, Arabian and European cultures. Begin today's walking tour at Ben Youssef Medersa, a Quranic learning center with elaborate wooden latticework. Then step into the city's honeycomb souks to experience the pulse of local life. These shaded, maze-like markets are a cacophony of sounds and colors, where stalls display olives, nuts, rainbow-hued spices and vials of potions. Emerge from the souks and thrill to the ambience of Jemaa el-Fna, the immense main square that is home to artists, food stalls, dancers, snake charmers, storytellers and musicians. Finally, visit Dar el Bacha Palace to admire its carved cedarwood and tilework.

Delight your palate during a delicious lunch.

Free Time: The afternoon is yours to enjoy Marrakech. Perhaps return to the souks to purchase spices or leather goods, or simply settle near the square with a sweet mint tea.

Celebrate the day over a dinner of traditional Moroccan cuisine.
