

Prague, capital city of the Czech Republic, is bisected by the Vltava River. Nicknamed “the City of a Hundred Spires,” it is known for its Old Town Square, the heart of its historic core, with colorful baroque buildings, Gothic churches and the medieval Astronomical Clock, which gives an animated hourly show. Completed in 1402, the iconic, pedestrian Charles Bridge is lined with statues of Catholic saints, recalling its past as the capital of the Holy Roman Empire.

The Czech Republic is one of Europe’s recent success stories. Since the fall of the Soviet Union, it has celebrated its freedom and independence with wide sweeping reforms and a new-found economic prosperity. Much of this progress reached its peak when, on May 1st 2004, they were admitted to membership of the European Union. Much of its charm, however, lies in the history and cultural wealth that its ancient position in Europe created.

While our tour focuses on the capital city of Prague, we will also explore the rural side of the country with excursions to the provinces and a dinner cruise along the Vltava River, that for so long dominated the region’s commerce. This then is truly one of the jewels of Eastern Europe.
