aboard the

Exclusively Chartered, New Small Ship
Five-Star LE JACQUES CARTIER

October 3 to 11, 2020

Dear Alumni and Friends:

Cruise the ancient trade routes of Phoenician and Roman mariners to discover the extraordinary Moorish monuments and cultural legacy of the most sophisticated civilization of the Middle Ages. This comprehensive itinerary features the unique coastal jewels found along the Iberian Peninsula, visiting towns and cities at the crossroads of faith and enlightenment during the Age of Discovery.

The exclusively chartered, Five-Star LE JACQUES CARTIER, launching in 2020, embodies the advantages of small ship cruising—elegant accommodations, an exclusive itinerary specially created with a carefully arranged excursion in each port and the ability to dock in smaller ports inaccessible to larger vessels, circumventing long lines for tenders and touring. This state-of-the-art small ship features only 92 elegant Suites and Staterooms, each with a private balcony.

Admire three of the world's most treasured UNESCO World Heritage sites—cruise in style into the heart of Seville on Spain's legendary Guadalquivir River to visit the astounding Alcázar, call on the enchanting Balearic Island of Mallorca to discover the cultural landscape of Serra de Tramuntana and tour Granada's magnificent Alhambra Palace. Experience Portugal's picturesque Algarve region and visit the regal city of Granada. Stand on Gibraltar's "Top of the Rock" to see the Pillars of Hercules spanning the scenic Strait of Gibraltar. Enjoy a visit to the vibrant capital city of the Balearic Islands, Palma de Mallorca, with excursions to paradisaical Valldemossa and Son Marroig. Onboard lectures will further illuminate these ancient ports and scenic landscapes.

I invite you to join us on this exclusive itinerary—which sells out quickly each year—and encourage you to reserve now while space and Early Booking Savings are still available.

Sincerely,

Brian Amkraut

Study Leader

Maggie Popkin specializes in ancient Roman art and architecture. Her research interests include the relationship between architecture, spectacle and ritual in the Roman world and the impact of visual culture on individual and social remembering in the classical world.

Prof. Popkin has published articles on a range of topics, from archaic Greek vase painting to materiality in Republican Roman architecture. Her articles have appeared in journals including Hesperia, The American Journal of Archaeology, The Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians and The Journal of Late Antiquity. She has presented her research at numerous national and international conferences and colloquia. Her first book, The Architecture of the Roman Triumph: Monuments, Memory, and Identity, examines the monuments built along the path of the Roman triumph, an elaborate ritual celebrating Roman military victories over foreign peoples, and their role in shaping how Romans experienced and remembered the triumphal ritual. Her second book project, Object Memory: Souvenirs and Memorabilia in the Roman Empire, investigates ancient souvenirs and memorabilia and their profound role in generating and mediating memory and knowledge of people, places and events in ancient Rome.

Iberia's Coastal Towns, Traditions and Trade Routes to Discovery

Discover the dynamic cultures, architectural and artistic treasures and compelling history of the Iberian Peninsula, revealed throughout its fortified medieval towns and coastal cities. The collaboration and joint influences of Greco-Roman, Judeo-Christian and Moorish cultures ushered in advances in mathematics, science, medicine, horticulture and philosophy, creating the catalyst for the Golden Age of Discovery and global trade of the 15th through 18th centuries. Ships sailing from Iberian shores to the New World brought back riches to the peninsula, generating great wealth among this unique mélange of cultures and sparking a veritable renaissance in art and architecture. Experience the distinctly Mediterranean tradition of these idyllic seaside cities, towns and villages as you embark on your voyage in the wake of mariners from centuries past.

Cover photo: In Seville, stroll across the Plaza de España's brightly colored bridges, one for each of the ancient kingdoms of Spain—Castilla, León, Aragón and Navarra.

Lisbon, Portugal

Lisbon's rich cultural heritage and pioneering role in the Age of Discovery is reflected in its lavish colonial churches, fairy-tale Moorish castle and sculpted Manueine monuments.

Lagos, the Algarve

Basking on Portugal's sun-washed southern coast, the province of the Algarve was settled by the Phoenicians and Romans and later ruled by the Moors. Today, their heritage remains in its distinctive architecture and flavorful regional cuisine. Intrepid 15th- and 16th-century Portuguese mariners, including Vasco da Gama, set sail from the Algarve's shores on voyages of discovery to Asia via the African coastline before triumphantly returning to Lisbon.

En route to Lagos, stop to admire Ponta da Piedade, a group of coastal limestone formations and cliffs known for both their size—some as tall as 60 feet—and beauty, their canyon coloring a stunning contrast against the translucent waters of Lagos Bay.

in Spain—and the riverfront Tower of Gold, a remnant of Seville’s Moorish fortifications. Stroll through delightful María Luisa Park and the majestic Plaza de España, built for the Ibero-American Exposition of 1929. Continue through charming Santa Cruz, the old Jewish quarter, with its gleaming white houses, flower-filled patios and orange trees lining the checkered stone streets.

Tour the breathtaking UNESCO World Heritage site of Alcázar, the sumptuous 14th-century residence of Seville’s Moroccan and Spanish rulers—still used by Enjoy stunning views of sea arches, sea caves and the Algarve coast from the lookout point atop the cliffs.

In the former Algarve capital, the port town of Lagos—once the center of trade between Moorish Portugal and Africa—visit the Baroque Church of St. Anthony, with its intricately gilded and carved wood interior.

See the dramatic Ponta da Piedade in the aquamarine waters of the Algarve coast.

Seville, Andalusia, Spain

Cruise into the heart of extraordinary Seville, Andalusia’s lively capital on the Guadalquivir River, with a rare docking directly in the city’s center. During a drive through this historical area, see the neoclassical Maestranza Bullring—the largest the Spanish royal family today—and one of the world’s most outstanding fusions of Christian and Mudéjar art. Visit the city’s sublime Giralda Tower minaret and magnificent Gothic cathedral, Europe’s second largest Christian house of worship after St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome. Inside, view the imposing monument to Christopher Columbus—whose remains were transported here in 1902 from Havana, Cuba—and the world’s largest altarpiece, a masterfully gilded woodcarving created over the course of 44 years by Flemish craftsman Pierre Dancart, along with masterpieces by Francisco Goya, Francisco Zurbarán and Bartolomé Murillo.

Enjoy a traditional flamenco performance on board the ship.

Gibraltar, British Overseas Territory

The near southernmost tip of the Iberian Peninsula, the Rock of Gibraltar was considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules that marked the boundary of the known world. On the “Top of the Rock,” the nearly 1400-foot-high limestone promontory, enjoy an expansive view from Europa Point across the strait separating Europe and Africa, and visit the Great Siege Tunnels, excavated by British Army engineers in the late 18th century to provide defense for the colony.

Discover one of Europe’s most dramatic landforms, the limestone Rock of Gibraltar that guards the entrance to the Mediterranean; this historically contested, 2.6-square-mile landmass is home to 32,000 residents and 300 macaques.

Tour the beautiful Palma Cathedral, or colloquially “La Seu,” dedicated in 1230 by King James I on New Year’s Day.

Delight in Mallorca’s 17th-century windmills dotting the plains of Serra de Tramuntana.

Observe up close the amusing antics of Barbary macaques, the only colony of wild monkeys in Europe, and see the impressive geological wonders in St. Michael’s Cave. The afternoon is at leisure to explore Grand Casemates Square, the largest pedestrian-only plaza in Gibraltar’s city center.

Málaga, Spain/Granada

This morning is at leisure in spirited Málaga, where magnificent hilltop vestiges of Roman and Moorish rule command a quintessentially Andalusian cityscape of fountain-dotted parks, palm-fringed promenades and white-washed streets draped with bouganvillea. Chart the rise of Málaga’s famous native son at the Museo Picasso, housed in an elegant 16th-century mansion.

Granada, the last Moorish kingdom in Spain, is dramatically located atop three hills and framed by the snow-clad Sierra Nevada mountains. Ruled for 250 years by the Nasrid dynasty and home to the priceless architectural legacy of the incomparable Alhambra and the Palace of Generalife with its brilliant gardens—a collective UNESCO World Heritage site—Granada makes an incredible, indelible impression. An evening tour of the Alhambra has been specially arranged for you to admire the genius of medieval Moorish craftspeople within the Nasrid palaces of this unrivaled complex.

Visit the awe-inspiring Seville Cathedral, which incorporates the 12th-century minaret of the site’s original mosque, known today as the Giralda Tower and often invoked as Spain’s most perfect example of Islamic architecture.

Palma de Mallorca, Balearic Islands

Pass the scenic almond groves that are emblematic of Palma on the way to the beautiful estate of Son Marroig, a medieval mansion with amazing panoramic views of the dazzling, azure Mediterranean waters.

See the terraced farms and water mills of the UNESCO World Heritage site of Serra de Tramuntana en route to the traditional village of Valldemossa, where famed composer Frédéric Chopin spent a winter in the Carthusian Monastery. Here, see one of the composer’s pianos and enjoy a piano recital of his music performed by a local musician.

In Palma, visit the Gothic 14th-century Bellver Castle—the only castle in Spain designed to be circular—to see the History Museum, an impressive sculpture collection and spectacular views 450 feet above the city. Tour the magnificent Palma Cathedral, a landmark of the city constructed over the course of 300 years, beginning in 1230 and now representing the apex of Catalan Gothic architecture.

Barcelona, Catalonia

The lively quarters of Barcelona’s beautiful Mediterranean metropolis are filled with the artistic wonders of Antoni Gaudí, Pablo Picasso and Salvador Dalí. The city center has the greatest concentration of Gothic architecture in Europe and proudly displays its heritage and roots as a Roman seaport since before the 11th century.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND BINDING ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITY: Gohagan & Company, The Laura & Alvin Siegal Lifelong Learning Program, Engaging Journeys, Inc., Case Western Reserve University, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (collectively "Gohagan"), do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your program including, for example, lodging facilities, airline, vessel, or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service or entertainment providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity or of any other third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God or force majeure, acts of government, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, bites from or attacks by animals, insects or pests, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof, sickness, illness, epidemics or the threat thereof, the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation, or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely.

If due to weather, flight schedules or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend an additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a program participant, or remove from a program, without refund, any person Gohagan judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other program participants, leaders or third parties, or who Gohagan determines to detract from the enjoyment of the program by others. Specific room/cabin assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel or cruise line.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or program features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Ship schedules, port calls, hours of arrival and departure, sightseeing events, special programs and guest lecture series (if applicable) are subject to change or cancellation. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute motorcoach transportation using hotels, inns or lodges for cruise accommodations if necessary due to weather, water conditions or levels, other events of force majeure, mechanical or other conditions beyond the control of Gohagan. Gohagan is not responsible therefor and is not required to compensate passengers under these circumstances. Gohagan may cancel a program (or an option) for any reason whatsoever; if so, its sole responsibility is to refund monies paid by the participant to it. Gohagan, however, is not required under these circumstances to refund the cost of any purchased travel insurance. Gohagan is not required to cancel any program for any reason including without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. Gohagan is not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Gohagan makes the flight arrangements or cancels the program. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute vessels, hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure.

UNIVERSITY DISCLAIMER: The University is not the tour operator.

The University is not responsible for changes of flight times, fare changes, failure to honor airline, hotel or car-rental reservations, delays, losses, injuries, inconveniences, cessation of operations, the acts or defaults of any person or entity engaged in conveying participants or in carrying out other arrangements of the program, airline or tour operator bankruptcies, weather, strike, civil unrest, terrorism, acts of God, or any other event beyond our control.

The University is not responsible for alteration in the itinerary as deemed necessary for carrying out the program, and the right is reserved to substitute hotels of similar quality. The right is further reserved to cancel any program prior to departure, in which case the entire payment may be refunded without further obligation on its part. The right is also reserved to decline to accept or to retain any person as a member of the program should such person's health, actions or general deportment impede the operation of the program or the rights or welfare of the other participants. No refund will be made for the unused portion of any program.

Applicants for participation on program tour accept in full all of the conditions set forth above.

NOT INCLUDED: Taxes; passport, visas and associated fees; personal expenses such as laundry, telephone calls and Internet access unless otherwise specified; accident/sickness, trip cancellation, and baggage insurance; gratuities to ship and hotel personnel; optional sightseeing excursions; baggage charges on aircraft; local departure air/airport tax(es); airfare and associated local taxes, airport facility and security taxes and federal inspection fees not listed in the "Included Features" section of the brochure; transfers and baggage handling to/from airport/hotel/ship on day(s) of arrival and/or departure if you are arriving earlier or later than and/or departing earlier or later than the scheduled group transfer(s); any overnight on land due to flight schedule(s); meals, alcoholic or other beverages and all other services not specifically mentioned in the "Included Features" section.

AIRFARE: Airfare is subject to change and availability and, depending on the fare basis, likely is nonrefundable. Your airline ticket constitutes a contract between you and the airline, even if purchased through Gohagan.

LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without notice.

DISCOUNTED RESERVATIONS: Discounts apply only to those reservations received in the offices of Gohagan in writing, accompanied by the required deposit, by March 6, 2020. In the event a "discounted" reservation must be cancelled, no "replacement" reservation can be substituted at the discounted rate. A "replacement" reservation is a new reservation and can be substituted only at the full-fare tariff. Cancellation penalties may apply.

PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance (for example, the need for a wheelchair) must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Travelers must be able to embark or disembark motorcoaches alone or with minimal assistance from your travelling companion and climb stairs and step over raised thresholds without assistance. Travelers requiring assistance must travel with a companion who will be responsible for handling equipment.

CANCELLATIONS: Cancellations for all or any part of the program including Pre/Post Program(s) reservation(s) will not be effective until received in writing in the offices of Gohagan. Should you have to cancel, the following terms will apply: reservation cancellation(s) are subject to a $200 ($50 Pre/Post Program(s)) per person administrative fee from the time of booking through 120 days prior to departure; from 119 through 95 days prior to departure, $600 ($200 Pre/Post Program(s)) per person; from 94 through 60 days prior to departure, 50% of the published full regular tariffs; cancellations 59 days or less prior to departure, a no-show, or early return from the program will result in forfeiture of 100% of the published full regular tariffs. In addition, any applicable airline cancellation fees, optional excursion cancellation fees and administrative fees may apply.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: We strongly recommend that you purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation in a travel program, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Trip cancellation insurance is available for comprehensive coverage of such expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident, and damaged or lost luggage. Upon receipt of your reservation, information on trip cancellation insurance will be sent to you by Engaging Journeys, Inc. Questions can be directed to info@engagingjourneys.com.

RATES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and are subject to change at any time. On land and/or cruise programs, even after full payment, Gohagan reserves the right to increase the program price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, currency fluctuations or fuel or energy surcharges and all such increases are to be paid to Gohagan upon notice to the program participant of such increases. On programs which include Gohagan purchased interstate or international air (which originates or returns to the United States), no increased costs will be passed on after final payment except for subsequently imposed governmental tax increases.
