

Middle Egypt: A Cruise on the Nile

MAY 11 – 26, 2023

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Join your fellow travelers through a stretch of the River Nile identified as 'Middle Egypt'. This expedition be led by none other than our own Dr. Meghan Strong, Lecturer, Classics and Research Associate at the Cleveland Museum of Natural History. Dr. Strong has deep ties with this region where she has led trips.

Middle Egypt today can be identified as the part of the Nile Valley that, while geographically part of Upper Egypt (the southern part), is culturally closer to Lower Egypt (the northern part). This luxury cruise on the M/S Darakum will begin in Cairo stopping along the important sites of the Middle Kingdom eventually ending in Aswan. Spanning 7,000 years of history, guests will experience the heartbeat of this desert region delving deep into the history of the ancient Egyptian kingdoms and various dynasties. You will get a flavor of a civilization that played a crucial role in influencing regional and international politics as well as commerce and technology that continues to resonate until today. During this expedition you will visit Medieval Cairo, archaeological sites in ancient places such as Beni Hasan, the fascinating rock-cut Middle Kingdom tombs and the Greco-Roman city of Hermopolis before stopping at the more well-known areas of Luxor, Aswan and Abu Simbel.

Due to the nature of the destination and limited cabin accommodations, space is limited and I encourage you secure your spot today by contacting our tour operator at (917) 686-2620/ info@immersionjourneys.com or by filling out the enclosed tour reservation form.

Sincerely,,
