IAN McEWAN

Ian McEwan's literary works have earned him worldwide critical acclaim. His first collection of short stories, First Love, Last Rites, won the Somerset Maugham Award in 1976. McEwan was shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize for Fiction numerous times before winning the award for Amsterdam in 1998. His novel, Atonement, received the WH Smith Literary Award in 2002 and was adapted into an Oscar-winning film featuring Keira Knightley and James McAvoy. His new book, What We Can Know, will be published on September 18, 2025. All attendees will receive a copy of What We Can Know.

INTRODUCTION

ROBERT SPADONI

Robert Spadoni is an associate professor at Case Western Reserve University, where he teaches courses across a wide range of film topics. He is the author of Uncanny Bodies: The Coming of Sound Film and the Origins of the Horror Genre (University of California Press). Spadoni earned his doctorate in English from the University of Chicago and a master's degree in cinema studies from New York University. In 2018, he received the Carl F. Wittke Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching.

1922 Society

Individuals who make a commitment to the Cuyahoga County Public Library Foundation's future through a bequest or planned gift become members of the 1922 Society, named for the year CCPL was established. One of the easiest, most meaningful and enduring planned gifts an individual can make is a bequest to the CCPL Foundation in their will. Other legacy gifts are qualified retirement plans, life insurance policies, trusts, gift annuities or pooled income funds.

Your planned gift will be multiplied with gifts from other individuals and families through the Sari Feldman Fund of the CCPL Foundation to support programs and services throughout the CCPL system. These are library programs that secure CCPL's standing as one of the nation's leading public library systems but cannot be sustained through general operating funds alone. All unrestricted planned gifts given to the Cuyahoga County Public Library Foundation will help grow the Sari Feldman Fund to support continued and new programming.

1922 Society members will receive special access to exclusive author events, and will be publicly recognized in branches and Library publications. When the time is right for you to include a charitable gift in your estate plan, please remember the Cuyahoga County Public Library Foundation and know your legacy will make a difference for your community.

LIHI LAPID

I Wanted to Be Wonderful, A Novel

This book follows the lives of two women in their first years of motherhood. One is a fictional character trying to live the happily ever-after life we all imagined for ourselves. The second woman is the author herself, relating her real life story. It's a story of metamorphosis, from independent working woman to mother, helpless in the face of the discovery that there's something very seriously wrong with her daughter. In trenchant, thoughtful, and often laugh-out-loud-funny prose, Lihi tells a true-life story of women – and men – struggling to live up to modern pressures.
