ABOUT THE DIRECTORS

Kennedy Brehm is a junior majoring in Polymer Engineering and Music at Case Western Reserve University. She is the Vice President of Finance and Co-Director of Clarinet Choir for the CWRU Chamber Collective. She has played with the Harmonie Winds, Clarinet Choir, Symphonic Winds, Orchestra, Footlighters Pit Orchestra, Chamber Ensembles, Klezmer Ensemble, and Marching Band. Kennedy studies clarinet with Dan Gilbert.

Marija Djordjevic is junior pursuing a B.A. in Music and Mathematics at Case Western Reserve University. She is the Co-Director of Clarinet Choir and the officer of Public Relations for the CWRU Chamber Collective. She has played in several of the ensembles at CWRU including Symphonic Winds, Symphonic Orchestra, Percussion Ensemble, and the Footlighters pit orchestra. She currently studies clarinet with Daniel Gilbert through the joint music program with CIM and also studies percussion with Matthew Larson.

Genevieve Fritz is a junior undergraduate student studying Music Education at Case Western Reserve University. She plays in several ensembles at CWRU including Symphonic Winds, Symphony Orchestra, Jazz Ensemble I, and the Footlighters pit orchestra. She is also the music director of the CWRU Brass Ensemble and plays with the Cleveland Philharmonic Orchestra and Monumental Brass. Genevieve studies trumpet with Loren Toplitz through the joint music program at CIM as well as double bass with Kathleen Horvath.

Samhita Tatavarty is a senior undergraduate student pursuing a double major in Cognitive Science and International Studies with minors in Applied Data Science and Classics. She is the director of Harmonie Winds, and has played bassoon in several ensembles during her time at CWRU including chamber ensembles, Symphonic Winds, Symphony Orchestra, and local Cleveland groups.

ABOUT THE GROUP

Executive Board

Genevieve Fritz, President

Kennedy Brehm, Vice President of Finance

Marija Djordjevic, Public Relations

The CWRU Chamber Collective was started to provide the Case Western Reserve University community with the chance to make music in a fully student-led environment.

The CWRU Clarinet Choir and Harmonie Winds started in the Spring 2022 semester, followed by the CWRU Brass Ensemble in the Fall 2022 semester.

Students interested in playing in either the CWRU Brass Ensemble or CWRU Clarinet Choir should email ccleadership@case.edu.

Thank you for joining us today. Enjoy the performance!
