

Maternal and Child Nutrition Certificate

Requirements and Guidelines

- 15 graduate credits;
- These credits can be counted toward a MS degree in nutrition;
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0;
- No transfer courses or work experience accepted in lieu of credit courses;
- Certificate is officially shown on transcripts.

Required Courses

NTRN 435 – Nutrition for Pregnancy and Lactation (3 credits, offered fall)

Prerequisites: NTRN 401 or NTRN 433 or instructor consent.

NTRN 436 – Pediatric Nutrition (3 credits, offered fall)

Prerequisites: NTRN 401 or NTRN 433 or instructor consent.

Electives

NTRN 401* – Nutrition for Community and Healthcare Professionals (2 or 3 credits, offered online each semester)

Prerequisite: Graduate standing.

NTRN 433* – Advanced Human Nutrition I (4 credits, offered fall)

Rec. Preparation: NTRN 401, CHEM 223, and BIOL 348, or equivalent.

NTRN 441 – Human Lactation (3 credits, offered fall)

Prerequisites: NTRN 363 or NTRN 433 or NTRN 401, or instructor consent.

NTRN 446 – Advanced Maternal Nutrition: Special Topics (3 credits, offered spring)

Prerequisite: Dietetic intern or instructor consent.

NTRN 456 – Pediatric Obesity (3 credits, offered online)

NTRN 532C – Specialized Public Health Nutrition Field Experience (1-6 credits)

Prerequisite: PHN students only. Consent of instructor.

NTRN 533 – Nutritional Care of Neonate (3 credits, offered fall at MetroHealth)

Rec. Preparation: NTRN 435 or instructor consent.

NTRN 602 – Special Project in Nutrition (1-3 credits)

Prerequisite: Graduate standing.

* Students may apply NTRN 401 OR NTRN 433 to this certificate, but not both.