MEMORADUM OF NEW SHIPPING ADDRESS

To: Reference Laboratories and Clients

From: Dr. Shashirekha Shetty, Ph.D. FACMG, FCCMG
Laboratory Director, National Prion Disease Pathology Surveillance Center
Debora Poruban, MS, MB (ASCP)^{CM}
Operations Manager, National Prion Disease Pathology Surveillance Center

Date: September 1, 2026

Subject: New Shipping Address and Lab Move

The National Prion Disease Pathology Surveillance Center is relocating to a new lab space within the university. We would like to inform you of our new shipping address, and its effective start date of October 2, 2026. All shipments being sent after October 2, 2026 should be sent to the following address:

Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine

Attn: NPDPSC

2210 Circle Drive, Robbins, 485

Cleveland, OH 44106-4977

There will be no delay in clinical testing and may be minimal delay in autopsy testing. As usual, to avoid specimen delays and ensure optimal testing conditions, we request that shipments be sent as priority overnight Monday-Thursday, as we do not accept weekend deliveries.

Please hold specimens at the required temperature according to the shipping conditions outlined in our guidelines as well as refer to our updated test requisition forms on our website.
