Fall 2020 | Issue 18 | 10.05.2020

The first presidential debate of 2020 was held by CWRU at the HEC. This was the second time CWRU hosted a presidential debate since 2004. It was very fitting to see the candidates go head to head at the HEC & Cleveland Clinic as healthcare delivery and scientific discovery have now become more important than ever! The future of science and healthcare are on the ballot so remember to cast your VOTE!

This Day in PA History

It's hard to believe that the PA profession has been around for just over 50 years. In this short period of time, PAs have become an essential part of not only healthcare but also the community. We use PA Week to celebrate and highlight the milestones we have crossed as a profession, every October 6-12. This tradition started on October 6, 1987 which is 20 years after Duke University graduated the first class of PAs. The date, October 6th, was chosen as a way to honor our profession founder, Dr. Eugene Stead, on his birthday. Happy PA Week! —Hinali Patel, Class of '21, Hudson Society Historian

Amongst the busyness of ongoings in our world, here is a friendly reminder to drink water, cuddle with your cat and ask your loved ones how they are doing C:
