Tips for the Didactic Year!

To the 2021s, summer semester is tough and took a lot of grit! Your fellow upperclassmen have compiled a few tips to help with the transition into the beginning of your didactic year. Congratulations on making it this far in school!

1. Rely on each other, use each other as resources. Remember everyone is on the same boat. And you can all succeed if you work as a team!
2. Take a break when needed! Sometimes you will feel so overwhelmed, but taking time for yourself is necessary to be successful.
3. Use each other when practicing for interviewing and PD. We are each other's greatest resource.
