

Table 1. Gender of entering class. The CWRU PA program continues to recruit gender diverse class each interview cycle.

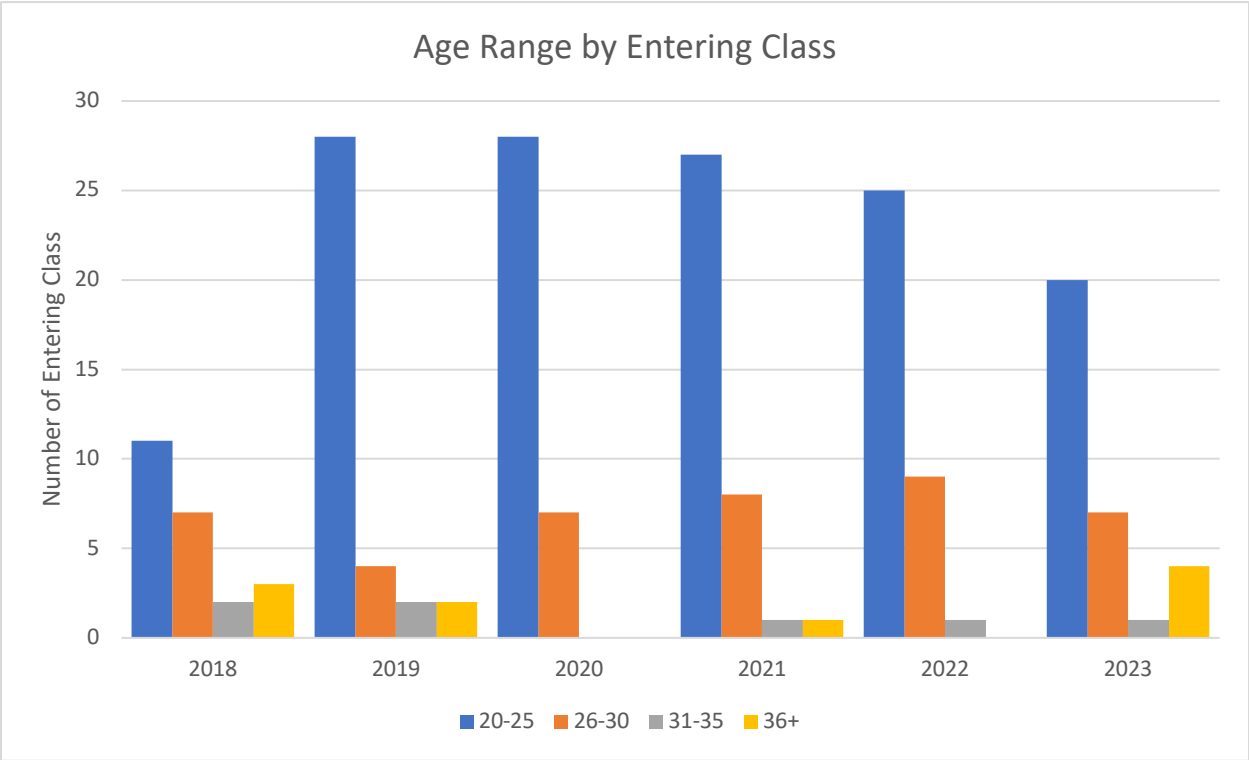

Table 2. Age of entering class. The CWRU PA program continues to recruit a broad age-range of students each year.

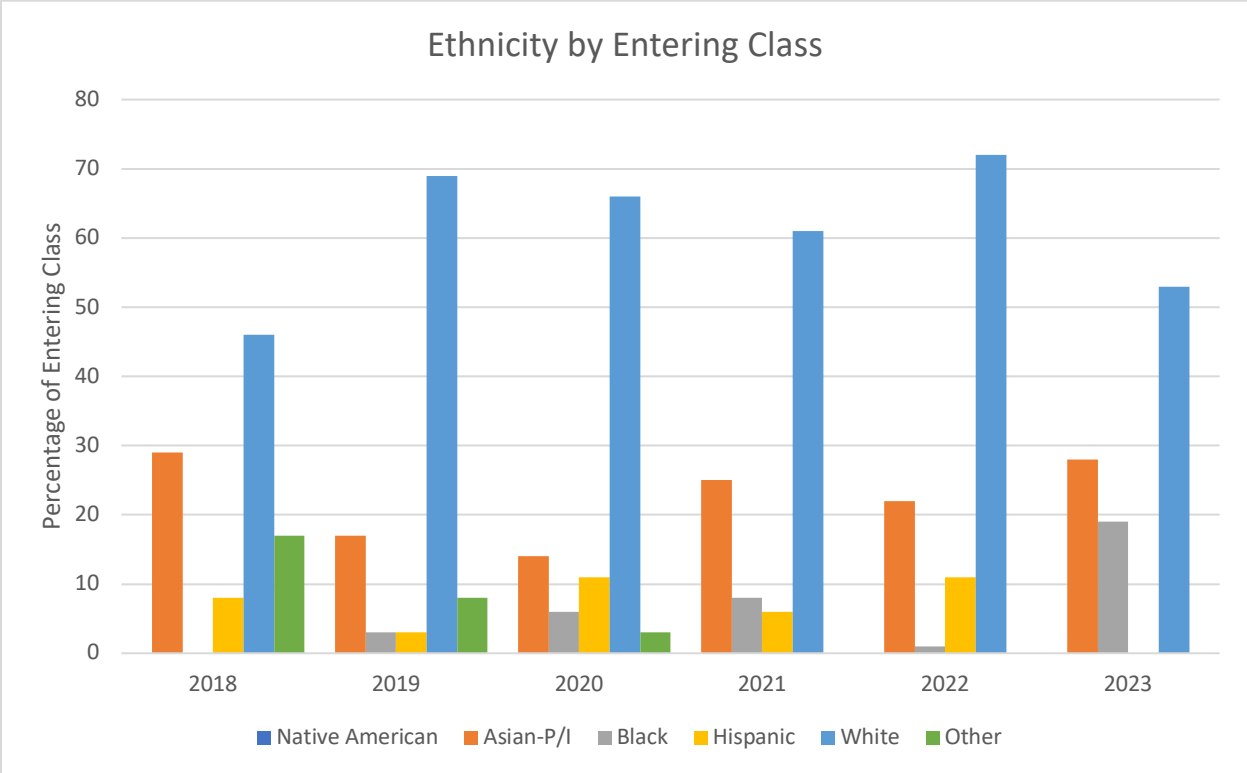

Table 3. Ethnicity of entering class. The CWRU PA program aims to attract an ethnically diverse class.

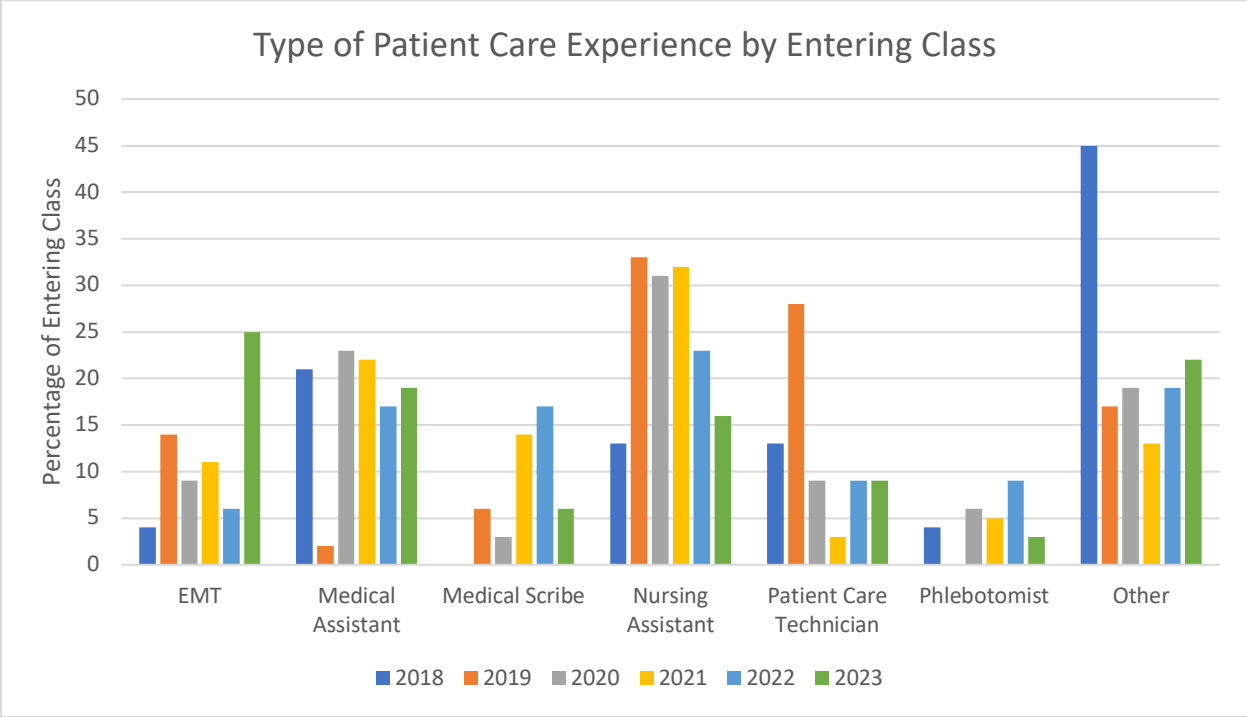

Table 4. Experience of entering class. The Class of 2022 and 2023 had experience in a variety of medically related fields. The largest percentage were EMT’s, Medical Assistants, and Nursing Assistants.

Table 5. Geographic distribution of entering class. The CWRU PA program continues to attract a geographically diverse class.

Table 6. Highest earned degrees beyond bachelors of entering class. The number of earned master’s degrees increased in the Class of 2023.

Table 7. GRE percentile scores of applicants. The average percentile analytic, quantitative, and verbal GRE scores has stayed consistent throughout our entering classes.

Table 8. GPA comparison of applicants. The CWRU PA program attracts an academically strong class.

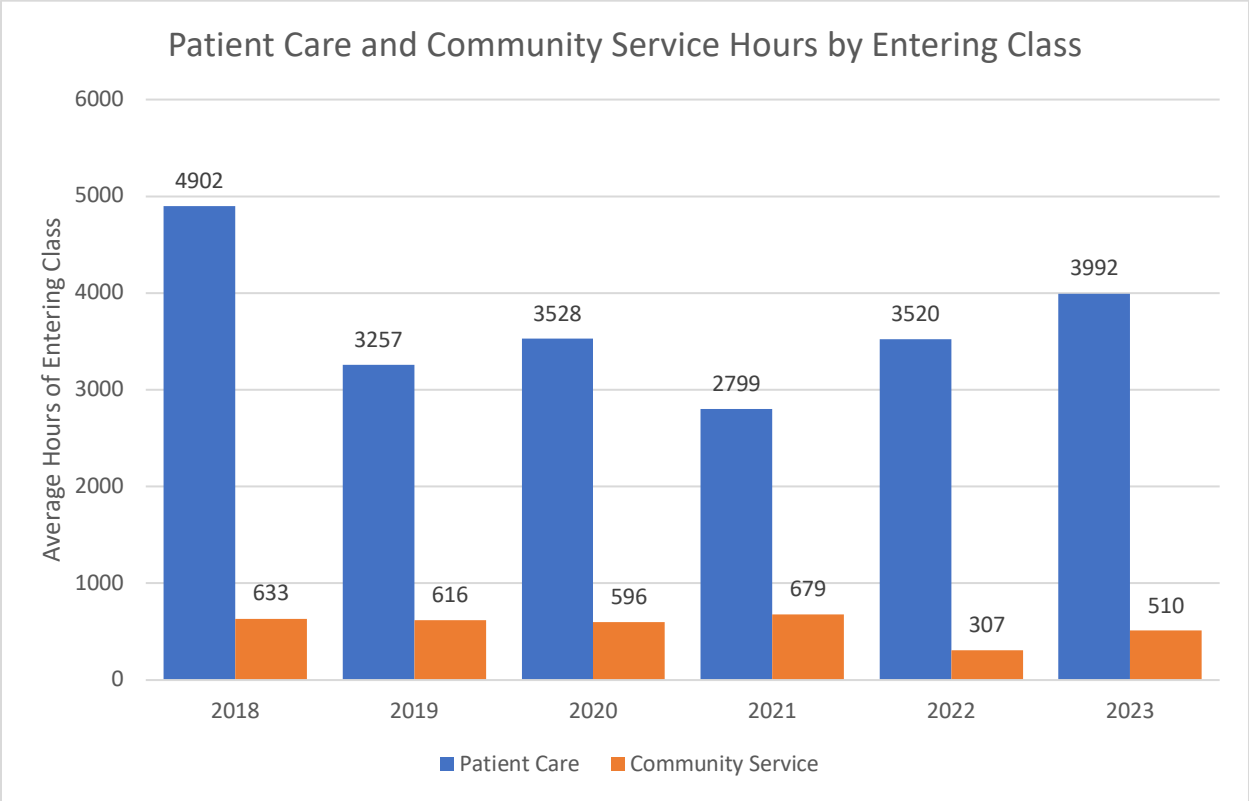

Table 9. Average number of direct patient care and community service hours of applicants. The CWRU PA program attracts applicants with strong community service and direct patient care experience. Patient care and community service hours increased with the Class of 2023.