Membership Terms: The Committee on Faculty Community and Representation shall be composed of nine full-time members of the Faculty of Medicine, two who hold primary appointments in basic science departments, two who hold primary appointments in clinical departments and five elected at-large. Membership should be diverse with regards to tenure and non-tenure track status. Committee members shall be elected by a vote of the full-time faculty, with no more than two members from a single department. The Dean may designate an appropriate administrative official to serve as an ex officio non-voting member. Additional ex officio members and guests may be invited by the committee chair. To ensure continuity, members shall serve staggered three-year terms. Members may stand for re-election and serve at most two consecutive terms. After a period of three years off the committee, former members may run for reelection to new term(s). The Chair of the Faculty Council shall appoint one of the elected members to serve on an annual basis as chair of the Committee after soliciting recommendations from its members.
